Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

Whereas The Federal Tax law as amended the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six provides that the estate liable thereunder shall be credited with any inheritance tax paid by its beneficiaries to the state or states the credit not to exceed eighty per cent and

Whereas This amendment is in derogation of the rights of the states because its object is to persuade them to abandon their state inheritance tax laws in favor of statutes based on the Federal law and giving effect to a joint levy upon estates by the nation and the state and

Whereas The Federal tax is not required for revenue and is useful only as a means of coercing the states and

Whereas The policy of joint levies is contrary to the theory of this government and an aggression upon the authority jurisdiction and independence of the legislatures of the soverign states therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That we hereby memorialize the present Congress of the United States to repeal immediately the Federal Estate Tax provisions of the revenue law effective the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six and vacate this field of taxation in time of peace

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in Congress of the United States

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, February 15, 1927.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee for the sunshine and the clearing skies of this beautiful morning after the days of darkness and storm. We are children of the light; we love the light and the sunshine and even the night is made brighter and better and happier for all of us because of the stars. So may we learn the lesson in our own lives that sunshine follows darkness and that peace follows strife.

Help us, as men and women, to take life as it comes, knowing that the dark days are always fewer than the bright days and the sad days always fewer than the happier days. Abide with us and bless us this morning as we commence the duties of this day. Guide us as members of this Legislature in all that we do, and bless our homes and our friends and be with all those who especially need Thee this day. We ask in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

Such bill shall not be placed upon the calendar except by a majority vote of the members elected to the House, but if such motion be negatived once, it shall not be renewed.

No bill negatived by a committee shall be placed upon the calendar of the House unless a motion to place such bill on the calendar be made within five days after such bill is reported from committee.

DISPOSITION OF BILLS IN THE HANDS OF MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE FOR REPORT.

39. When a committee has directed that a bill or resolution be reported to the House, it shall be the duty of the member assigned to report the same, to make report thereof at the next meeting of the House and in no event shall such report be delayed longer than two days, in which the House is in session. If the member assigned to report any bill or resolution shall fail to report the same within two days as aforesaid, the chairman of the committee or the Secretary of the committee, if he be a member, or either of them, is authorized to report a duly certified copy of said bill or resolution, or the committee may authorize another member to make report of said copy or the original bill or resolution.

WHEN COMMITTEES MAY BE DISCHARGED FROM CONSIDERATION OF BILL.

40. That when a bill or resolution has been ten days in the hands of a committee after having been referred to it, any committee may be discharged from the further consideration of the bill or resolution by a majority vote of all the members elect.

CALENDAR OF BILLS

ACTION ON BILLS IN THE HOUSE

41. All bills and joint resolutions reported affirmatively shall be placed on the calendars in the order in which they were reported to the House. The Resident Clerk shall prepare all calendars of bills.

READING OF BILLS

42. Every bill and every joint resolution shall be read at length on three different days. All amendments made thereto shall be printed for the use of the members before the final vote is taken thereon; and no bill shall become a law and no such resolution be adopted unless, on its final passage, the vote be taken by yeas and nays. The names of the persons voting for and against the same shall be entered on the Journal, and a majority of the members elected be recorded thereon as voting in its favor, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 4.

FIRST READING

43. When bills on first reading are in order, the Speaker shall take up the calendar and announce each bill in the order in which it appears on the calendar. They shall be severally read at length, and agreed to without amending or debate, and journalized accordingly.

SECOND READING

44. When bills on second reading are in order, the Speaker shall take up the calendar, and having announced each bill in its order, it shall be considered in the Committee of the Whole House; when the bill is reported back to the House the question shall be put, "Will the House agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole?" and if agreed to, any amendments made by the Committee of the Whole shall become a part of the bill. The House shall then immediately proceed to the second reading of the bill: Provided, That when a bill has been read at length in Committee of the Whole House, it shall be considered one of the readings required by the Constitution, and the bill shall not be "Will the House agree to the bill?" which shall be subject to amendment in any part. No bill shall be considered in Committee of the Whole House unless called up by a member, and if not called up for two successive weeks, it shall be dropped from the calendar unless otherwise ordered by the House. Bills on second reading shall be placed upon the calendar in the order which they were agreed to on first reading.

THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

45. When bills on third reading are in order the Speaker shall take up the calendar and announce each bill in its order, when it shall be read at length and having been agreed to, the Speaker shall announce as follows:

"This bill has been read three times, at length, on three separate days, considered and agreed to, and is now on its final passage. Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will be taken. The question is—'Shall the bill pass finally?'"

Bills on third reading and final passage shall be placed upon the calendars in the order in which they were agreed to on second reading, and third reading respectively.

AMENDMENTS TO BILLS OR RESOLUTIONS

46. No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto, or incorporating therewith any other bill or resolution pending before the House, nor shall a motion or proposition be entertained under color of such an amendment; nor shall any bill or resolution be amended by substituting therefor, under a motion to strike out, or otherwise any other bill or resolution on a subject different from that under consideration, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 1.

COPIES OF AMENDMENTS TO BILLS

47. When amendments are made to a bill, there shall be presented to the Chair, four typewritten copies of each amendment.

MOTIONS OR AMENDMENTS MAY BE WITH-DRAWN

48. Motions or amendments may be withdrawn by the mover and seconder before amendment or decision, and if withdrawn, the proceedings had thereon shall be expunged from the Journal. If the Speaker or any two members require it, all motions shall be in writing.

HOW AMENDMENTS SHALL BE PRINTED

49. In printing amendments to House or Senate bills, all new matter inserted shall be italicized and all matter eliminated from the bill shall be enclosed in heavy black face brackets.

DISPOSITION OF HOUSE BILLS ON THE POSTPONED CALENDAR

50. Any House bill placed upon the postponed calendar not called up within five days in which the House is in session, after being placed upon said calendar, shall be dropped unless the time of extended by vote of the House, upon motion for cause shown.

TO LAY ON THE TABLE CARRIES ALL ADHERING QUESTIONS WITH IT

51. A motion to lay on the table shall carry with it all questions which adhere to it, except in the case of laying an appeal on the table.

AMENDMENT LAID ON TABLE SHALL NOT CARRY BILL WITH IT

52. When an amendment proposed to any pending measure is laid on the table, it shall not carry with, or prejudice such measure.

BILLS ON TABLE

53. On the call of a member for bill or other subject on the table of the House, the question shall be decided without debate or amendment.

POSTPONEMENT—COMMITMENT—AMENDMENT

54. A motion for postponement shall preclude commitment. A motion for commitment shall preclude amendment or decision on the original subject.

POSTPONE FOR SUBSTITUTE MOTION

55. No motion can be received to postpone for the purpose of introducing a substitute.

NO BILL TO BE PASSED CONTAINING MORE THAN ONE SUBJECT

56. No bill, except the General Appropriation bill, shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 3.

APPROPRIATION BILLS

57. No bill appropriating money for charitable or benevolent purposes will be considered further than second reading until after the General Appropriation bill shall have been reported from committee.

APPROPRIATIONS TO PRIVATE INSTITUTIONS

58. No bill shall be passed appropriating money to any charitable or educational institution not under the absolute control of the Commonwealth, other than normal schools established by law for the professional training of teachers for the public school of the State, execept by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 17.

LOCAL OR SPECIAL BILLS TO BE ADVERTISED

59. No local or special bill shall be passed by the House unless the same shall be accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice thereof, in accordance with law, and proof of such publication shall be certified to by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 8.

NOT IN ORDER TO CONSIDER BILL OF SIMILAR CHARACTER AFTER BEING ONCE DEFEATED

60. When a bill has been defeated by the House, it shall not be in order to introduce and consider a similar one, or to act on a Senate bill of like import, during the same session.

BILLS VETOED BY THE GOVERNOR TO BE RECONSIDERED

61. All veto messages upon being announced by the speaker, shall be read and reconsideration of the bill proceeded with.

DEBATE

MEMBER MUST SPEAK FROM OWN DESK

62. No member shall be permitted to make a motion, or address to the Speaker, unless such member be at his desk.

MANNER OF ADDRESSING THE HOUSE

63. When a member is about to speak in debate or to communicate any matter to the House, he shall rise, and respectfully address himself to "Mr. Speaker," confining his remarks to the subject before the House, and avoiding personal reflections.

MEMBER NOT TO BE INTERRUPTED DURING DEBATE

64. No member, when speaking, shall be interrupted, except by a call to order by the Speaker or by a member to explain, or by a motion for the previous question; nor shall any member be referred to by name in debate, unless for transgression of the rules of the House, and then by the Speaker only.

NUMBER OF TIMES MEMBER MAY SPEAK

65. No member shall speak more than twice on the same subject, without the leave of the House.

TRANSGRESSION OF THE RULES IN DEBATE

66. If any member in debate transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, through the Speaker, call him to order, the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted by the House to explain; the House shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate; if there be no appeal, the decision of the Speaker shall be submitted to, and if the case requires it, the member so called to order shall be liable to the censure of the House.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

67. Any member may rise and explain a matter personal to himself by leave of the Speaker, but he shall not discuss any pending question in such explanation.

PREVIOUS QUESTION

68. The previous question shall not be moved by less than twenty members rising for that purpose, and shall be determined without debate; but when the previous question has been called and sustained, it shall not cut off any pending amendment, but the vote shall be taken without debate on the amendments in their order, and then on the main question.

DIVISION OF THE QUESTION

69. Any member may call for the division of a question, which shall be divided, if it comprehends questions so distinct, that one being taken away, the rest may stand entire for the decision of the House. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible, but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert.

BEHAVIOR DURING PUTTING OF QUESTIONS AND DEBATE

70. While the Speaker is putting the question or addressing the House, none shall walk out of or across the House; or when a member is speaking, shall entertain private discourse; nor while a member is speaking shall pass between him and the Chair.

VOTING

MEMBERS REQUIRED TO BE PRESENT AND VOTE

71. Every member shall be present within the Hall of the House during its sittings, unless excused by the House, or necessarily prevented, and shall vote on each question put, unless he has a direct personal or pecuniary interest in the determination of such question. If a member refuses to vote, unless he be excused by the House, or unless he be interested, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt.

MEMBERS HAVING PRIVATE INTEREST IN BILL NOT TO VOTE

72. A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the House shall disclose the fact to the House and shall not vote thereon, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 33.

FORM OF PUTTING QUESTIONS

73. All motions made and seconded shall be repeated by the Speaker, who shall put the question distinctly, in the following form, viz: "As many as are of the opinion (as the question may be) say 'Aye' ".

And after affirmative is expressed, "As many as are of the contrary say 'No' ".

DIVISION OF THE HOUSE

74. The Speaker, or any member may call for a division of the House, when the Speaker shall again put the question distinctly and in the following manner, viz:

"As many as are in the affirmative (as the question may be) will rise."

He shall put the opposite side of the question "As many as are in the negative will rise."

ORDER OF CALLING THE ROLL

75. When the names of the members shall be called, it shall be done in alphabetical order, except "Mr. Speaker" who shall be called last.

VOTING WHEN NAME IS CALLED

76. No member shall be permitted to record his vote who neglects to vote when his name is first called by the clerk.

CHANGING OF VOTES

77. On the call of the yeas and nays, the Clerk shall read the names of the members; after they have been called no member shall be permitted to change his vote, unless he, at that time, declares that he voted under a mistake of the question.

MEMBER MUST BE WITHIN BAR OF THE HOUSE TO VOTE

78. No member shall be permitted to vote on any question unless he be within the bar of the House and when the yeas and nays are called he be present to answer to his name.

CALL FOR YEAS AND NAYS REASON FOR VOTES

79. The yeas and nays of the members on any question shall, at the desire of any two of them, be entered on the Journals, and the members shall have the right to insert the reasons of their votes on the Journals.

VERIFICATION OF THE ROLL AND CHALLENGING OF VOTES

80. After the completion of a roll call, any member of the House may demand a verification of the roll by the clerk and if the vote or votes of members recorded as voting shall be challenged, in writing, by any member, and the votes so challenged would change the result, the announcement of the vote shall be postponed until the Speaker shall have investigated the allegations made, when the roll call shall be corrected, if necessary, and the true result shall be announced by the Speaker.

RECONSIDERATION

81. A motion for reconsideration shall be permitted when made and seconded by members who were in the majority on the original question and within five days in which the House is in session after the decision, excepting when a bill or resolution shall have been recalled from the Governor in which case a motion to reconsider shall be entertained though more than five days shall have elapsed. It shall be decided by a majority of those voting. No motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, report, amendment or motion upon which the vote was taken shall have gone out of the possession of the House. When a motion to reconsider is lost, it shall not be again renewed on the same question, nor shall such a motion be entertained until other business has transpired.

CONCURRENCE IN COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE SENATE

CONCURRENCE IN SENATE COMMUNICATIONS

82. Communications from the Senate to the House shall be read and information shall be given to the Senate whenever any proposition coming from that body shall be concurred in.

CONCURRING IN HOUSE BILLS AMENDED BY THE SENATE

83. When a bill or joint resolution that originated in the House has passed the Senate with amendments, the section of the bill as amended, together with the amendments, shall be read by the Clerk, after which reading the proposed amendments shall be open to the action of the House. If no action is taken by the House, the Speaker shall, without a motion put the question, "Will the House concur in the amendment (or amendments) made by the Senate?" and the vote be immediately taken by yeas and nays. The same number of votes shall be required to concur in the amendment (or amendments) as were required originally to pass the bill or joint resolution in the House. The House shall not take any action on bills or joint resolutions that have been returned by the Senate as amended, until copies of the bill or joint resolution as amended have been printed and placed on the desks of the members, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 5.

RESOLUTIONS

ORIGINAL AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

84. All resolutions, after they have been twice read shall be printed and lie over for one day, after which they may be called up under their appropriate order of business.

This rule shall not apply to the following resolutions, viz:

Recalling bills from the Governor.

Recalling bills from one House to the other.

Those eminating from the Committee on Rules.

Those relating to adjournment.

Those discharging committees.

Those placing negative bills upon the calendar.

CERTAIN RESOLUTIONS TO BE REFERRED TO RULES COMMITTEE

85. All resolutions fixing the date of final adjournment or fixing the last day for introduction of bills, shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and reported therefrom before being acted upon by the House: Provided, however, That said committee shall be subject to discharge from the consideration of said resolutions the same as all other committees, in case of bills.

RECORDS

HOUSE JOURNAL TO BE THE OFFICIAL RECORD OF THE HOUSE

86. The Journal of the House shall be the official record of the House, and all actions in the House, except debate, shall be noted therein; any corrections to it shall be made at the time of the reading of the Journal before it is approved, as required by the Constitution, Art. II, Sec. 12.

HISTORY OF BILLS IN THE HOUSE

87. A weekly history showing the status of all House bills and original House resolutions with an alphabetical index by subjects shall be prepared under the direction of the Chief Clerk of the House.

RULES

ALTERATION OR SUSPENSION OF RULES

88. Any rule of the House may be suspended at any time for a specific purpose by a majority vote of the members elect; after the accomplishment of which purpose the rule shall remain in force as before.

Any motion to alter or amend the rules permanently shall lie over one day and shall be adopted by a majority vote of the members elect.

The rules shall be published in the Pennsylvania State Manual, a copy of which shall be delivered to each member at the commencement of the session.

JEFFERSON'S MANUAL TO GOVERN THE HOUSE

89. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules of the House.

MISCELLANEOUS RULES

FILLING UP BLANKS

90. When a blank is to be filled the question shall be first taken on the largest sum, greatest number and remotest day.

PERSONS PERMITTED TO COME WITHIN BAR OF THE HOUSE

91. None but members of the Senate, their officers, the Governor and heads of the State departments, Judges of the courts of this Commonwealth, and families of the members of the present House and Senate former members of the the Legislature when introduced by a member of the present House, and others who may be specially introduced by a member, by permission of the Speaker, shall be permitted to come upon the floor of the House during its session; and no person, shall be permitted to occupy the seats of the members; or interrupt a member by speaking to him in his seat, while the House is in session; and it shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to give notice to any person offending against this rule.

NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENTS

92. (a) Any person accorded the privileges of a newspaper correspondent must be the telegraphic correspondent of a daily newspaper, or of a recognized press association, who is not engaged in any department of the State Government, or in any other business, or must be the official reporter for a Harrisburg daily newspaper; and no more than one representative of each newspaper shall be admitted to the press gallery at one time.

(b) All applications for admission to the press gallery must be made to the Speaker. Such application shall state the name of the newspaper, its location, times of publication, and be signed by the applicant.

(c) The Speaker shall verify the statements made in such application, and if the application is approved by him, he shall issue a correspondent's card, signed by him and by the President of the Correspondents' Association.

(d) The correspondents shall not visit the members in their seats during the sessions of the House, and shall abide by such rules and regulations, as may be adopted by the Rules Committee of the House.

(e) The card issued by the Speaker must be presented when required by any Sergeant-at-Arms. It shall not be transferable. The transfer or loan of such card to any one shall be followed by its cancellation and the withdrawal of all its privileges from the correspondent so offending.

(f) The gallery alloted to newspaper correspondents shall be for their exclusive use and persons not holding correspondents' cards shall not be entitled to admission thereto.

ENTERING TRANSCRIBING ROOMS PROHIBITED

93. No person or persons shall, at any time, be permitted to enter the room of the transcribing clerks, except the members and officers of the General Assembly, and it shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to see that this rule is observed

LOUNGING PROHIBITED IN THE HALL OF THE HOUSE

94. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to prevent all persons not connected with the Legislature, from assembling in the halls at any time when the House is not in session for the purpose of lounging and loafing. For the purpose of enforcing this rule, two of said officers shall be in attendance at all times, and the persistent neglect or disregard of this rule shall be caused for dismissal by the Speaker.

SOLICITING SUBSCRIPTIONS PROHIBITED

95. No officer or employee of the House shall solicit subscriptions for any purpose, from any other member, officer or employee of the House.

PEDDLING WITHIN THE BAR OF THE HOUSE PROHIBITED

96. No person shall be permitted to hawk, peddle or offer for sale any article of traffic at any time within the hall of the House; and it shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to strictly enforce this rule.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Rules Committee?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, there has been considerable discussion in the past that the rules of the House were ancient, and antequated, and it was by a resolution introduced in the House that the Rules Committee met and revised the rules for the session of 1927, no effort being made by reason of the importance of the changes to hurry this important proposition before the body. As I have already explained, these rules were placed on the desks of every member for the purpose of digesting the same, and for the purpose of hearing any constructive criticism that might apply. Then this special order was fixed to ask the body to adopt these rules. Appreciating the fact that unless they were read carefully you might possibly skip some important item in these rules, I have taken the privilege of having a digest made of the important changes, and will read them to you, and that will give you a further opportunity of knowing just exactly whether or not the change of rules and the modification of the same meet with your approval. With your permission I will read the important changes.

I call your attention to rule No. 48, bills reported from committee with a negative recommendation, requiring a majority vote of the members elect to be placed upon the calendar, instead of a majority voting upon motion, as under present House rule 37.

I call your attention to the new rule No. 40, discharge of committee from consideration of bill requires a majority of members elect instead of 60 members, as under present House rule No. 57.

Rule No. 84, that is the new rule, eliminates resolutions requesting information from departments from immediate consideration, and requires that they be printed for the information of the members, as is the case in all other important resolutions.

New rule No. 88, alteration or suspension of the House rules, either temporarily or permanently, requires a majority vote of members elect instead of a majority of members voting, as provided by present House rule 43.

New rule 89, Jefferson's Manual to govern procedure of the House in absence of House rule or a question of practice.

Other minor changes are substantially this: all other changes are simply a revision of the rules to conform with the present parlimentary practice of the House and Senate.

The rules have been arranged under subject headings in accordance with their relation to each other.

All constitutional provisions affecting the enactment of legislation have been included in the revised rules with notations of articles and sections.

A complete cross reference subject index has been made of the rules for the convenience of the members.

The purpose of the Rules Committee was to make the committees real committees, and when the committees function, the members of this body would have confidence in their ability and if there is any dissatisfaction with the action of the committee in reference to the dscharge of committees, and with reference to any motion to disregard the negative recommendation of any committee, that it would take a constitutional majority of the House to decide that problem. We believe that we are modern in this procedure, and we are only asking that the rules of the House be identical with those of the Senate. We hope that meets with your approval, and on behalf of the Rules Committee, Mr. Speaker, I ask their adoption.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, the proposed changes in rules 38 and 40 involve the question of the proper division of power between this House as a body and its committees which are really a creation of this House. I feel that the changes here suggested would make the committees the prime factors in legislation instead of the body of the House itself. In other words, it would over-emphasize, in my mind, the importance of the committee, and would to some extent minimize the importance of the consideration of a bill in this House. It would have a tendency to clip the wings of every member of this House, sitting here in this body, and would add a spur or two to the members who are so fortunate as to receive membership on four or five of the important committees. Now in the Senate I think this scheme would be more practical. In the Senate they have only fifty members, and every senator has an opportunity to attain membership on at least four or five or six of the important committees of the Senate. In the House, by the very nature of things, since we have 208 members here, a new member especially is very fortunate if he becomes a member of more than two important committees. The result is that the new member coming here, as a rule, gets only one or two important committees, and, therefore, has very little voice because these changes would make the committee the prime factor in legislation instead of the House itself, and the new member would therefore sit here and he charged with equal responsibility with other members of the House in the public mind; he would be held just as responsible by the people back home for what this House does as the man who sits on that important committee. I, therefore, think it is unfair to those members who are not so fortunate, by the very nature of things, to get on important committees, and we cannot all get on important committees. Personally I have no complaint. I am satisfied with my appointments, and I think the change in these rules would not affect me adversely, because I hold membership on a number of important committees, but I can see also that the new members, who are not so fortunate as to hold membership on those committees, would be practically deprived, to a large extent, of their voice in legislation in this body, although in the public mind they are held equally responsible with the rest of us for such legislation as is passed or is not passed.

Only a few weeks ago we listened to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, tell us that the members of the House were not held in the high esteem that they should be. I sometimes think we have been to a certain extent partly responsible for that, because during the last twenty years it has been the tendency of this legislature to delegate away the powers that were granted to us, and time after time we have created commissions, we have created boards, we have created bureaus, and we signed blank checks to them, and we simply took the work as it appeared on our desks, and we shoved it over to them, and we said, "It is for you to take care of it." We gave them blanket authority to issue decrees which have all the force and effect of law. The result is the more we turn away the power that is given to us, the more we take it and delegate it, whether we delegate it to our own committees or whether we delegate it to an outside body, such as a commission or bureau of some kind, the fact is that we are not assuming the full responsibility which I feel falls to us, because we are sort of backing away from the responsibility which was placed upon us, because we delegate to some other body the power which should be ours and we shove our work which in reality I fell should be ours, over to them. Now I have no strong feeling in this matter, but I really feel that if we continue to do this we will clip our own wings, and we will keep on clipping and clipping them until we sit here finally with practically no power at all. You all remember, if you have read the newspapers of the state, pick up any one of the big newspapers of the state—Philadelphia or Pittsburgh, or any of them, in the last three or four weeks, and time after time you see something like this: this is the most boss-controlled legislature that has been in Pennsylvania for many a day. They practically intimate that no legislation of any kind can pass this body unless an order comes from Pittsburgh, or Bristol, Pa. Now I am not ready to concede that, but if we now and here clip our own wings, if we now and here take away from the responsibility which is ours, and which rests upon us, and turn our work over to the committees, are we not confirming in the minds of the people that very thought that we are here to follow orders, because you know how easy it will be under rule 40, as here proposed, for a few men to kill a bill in committee. It has been my practical experience that with possibly two exceptions, the Appropriations Committee and the Public Roads Committee, outside of these the average committee meeting does not have more than eighteen or twenty members present. That would mean that about eleven men could defeat any piece of legislation, and we would here so tie our hands that it would be almost impossible to get a bill out of committee if eleven men on that committee said it should not come out.

This, to my mind, is a step in the wrong direction. I realize that Pennsylvania is not going to the dogs, nor is this legislature, if these rules are passed, but I feel it is a step in the wrong direction; that we should assume our responsibilities as a body, as members of this House, and not over-emphasize the importance of the committees. I realize the importance of committees but I feel that that this over emphasizing their importance and is bound to some extent to minimize the importance of the member who sits here in his seat and votes on the bills. In other words, in its practical effect, rule forty would mean that you would have to pass your bill before you could have it brought here to be considered. It would require a constitutional majority of 105 votes, and that would mean that your bill actually have to be passed before you could even have it considered here. Now, I feel that we should not stand here ourselves and hold out our hands and put the shackles on our own wrists and our own ankles, because we are described, as I said a moment ago, as a lot of sycophants, who bow down and take orders, and do what one or two men tell us to do. I feel it is a step in the wrong direction, and I ask the members of this House to consider seriously the effect of these rules, at least their tendency, before they vote for them.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I cannot agree just at this time with the gentleman from Berks on the question. Yet, at the same time, I think you all know that I would be the last one to take from the members of this House any power which they had; in other words, we are a government, practically, by committee. It must be so, and my experience has been in all these committees that they give the legislation that is before them full consideration. If there is any bill that is in any wise doubtful it is submitted to a sub-committee to make an investigation.

Let us look at the situation and see if the gentleman from Berks is just correct in his analysis. He does not intend to be incorrect—I don't mean to infer that. But let us see. We all know, those of us who have been in this House for several years, that it is much easier to get a vote to discharge a committee, or a vote to place a bill on the calendar, notwithstanding a negative vote of a committee, than it is to finally get a vote for the bill.

We have seen time and time again, numerous times, that very condition. A man will vote, he will say "let us give it a chance, let us bring it out of committee, let us put it on the calendar" but at the same time when that measure comes up for consideration by the House, he may vote against it. Now, you have all the means in the world to consider that bill, even when it is still in committee. You have your bills and can read them over and you can know if they are proper bills to put upon the calendar or discharge the committee and bring them out. Why should we encumber the calendar here and why put the State to the great expense of printing thease bills if finally we cannot get a majority vote to pass the bill.

My investigation of a few sessions ago showed me that we were practically the only State in the east, north of the Mason and Dixon Line that had this rule. All of them at the present time, and for years, have had a majority rule, the same as we are asked to adopt at this time. There is no harm can come to anybody. Every man, whether he be a new member or whether he be an old member, can investigate these bills, can see them and read them and can tell whether or not they are such bills as the state should be put to the expense of printing and putting on the calendar or any other action other than what the committee has already done, and, as I said before and only repeat for emphasis, if you cannot get a majority to pass the bill what is the use to encumber the calender and put the state to the expense.

Mr. F. N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I presume I am classed as one of the new members; but I am not in favor of depriving any member of this House from having a reasonable consideration of his measures. If he has sixty friends that will vote to bring his bill before the House, that there can be a fair explanation made of that bill, he is much more liable to convert the one hundred and five in favor of the bill than he is if the great majority of the members have not seen the bill. While these bills are printed and we all have an opportunity to study them, its a known fact, and I leave it to you individually, that the members of this House do not read one quarter of the bills that are introduced here unless placed on the calender where they have an opportunity to see them.

I think it is only fair that a respectable number of people as your present rules provide for sixty, can bring a bill out from committee so that it may be fairly discussed before the House. We are not so crowded for time; if we are, speed up a little, and we can have more sessions a week and those of us who live so far away won't have to travel so much. Speed up, and let us have a fair and square deal all around.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, this Rules Committee is not asking this House for anything that the House has not done before. Prior to 1913 it was always the rule in this House, and is still the rule of the Senate, that it sequired a majority vote of all the member elect to discharge a committee from further consideration of a bill. If the older members of this House, recollect the same as I do, in 1913 there were people elected to this House from all parts of the state upon the Roosevelt wave at that time that wanted all legislation to conform with their view-Also at that time the power of appointing committees was taken away from the speaker and we had a committee on committees to appoint committees. Fortunately for the House that practice was done away with, and I hope that the members of this House can see their way clear to go back to the rules as they existed prior to 1913. They were changed at that time to meet the conditions as they existed in that House and I feel today we should adopt these rules as they have been reported to the House by the Rules Committee.

Mr. STAUDENMEIR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like very much to agree with my friend, Mr. Sarig, from Berks, and my fiend Mr. Moore from Bradford. At first blush I was inclined to believe with them that the changes as contemplated by the rules committee would work a great deal of hardship to the members of this House, but the remark made by the gentleman, Mr. Moore from Bradford, I believe, that sixty members or sixty friends could get a bill out and then probably convert this House, showed me how futile this whole thing is. You older members realize and remember the fight that was made here by the anthracite delegation to place the so-called anthracite coal tax repealer on the calendar. Then when they got it on the calendar, what happened? To convert members of this House once orders go out or once their minds are made up would take an apostle like Saint Paul and I think he would have his hands full with a great many of them. The only thing that we found out with this placing of bills on the calendar irrespective of a negative recommendation was what good friends we had and what members thought of us. For instance, I remember the beautiful speech by the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn. He told us what kindly thoughts he had, that he bore towards all the members from the anthracite block. It was a beautiful thing. I have it at home and I have it marked. Then when the vote came of course he voted the other way. Now, those are the things that happen, and all we did was we found out what the members really thought of us fellows. Perhaps a man who introduced a bill in this House, and the bill was to be defeated, he could find out what the various members thought of him but that was all. We have in our committees public hearings, and public hearings will leave the daylight in on any bill. I am not in favor of stiffing any bill, or burying it without giving it due consideration. The objectons that Mr. Sarig and Mr. Moore have to this change of rules I think are met by the fact that we always can have public hearings in committees. No flower that is left in the dark can bloom; no tree will bear fruit unless it is given light. Now, for instance, the public hearings on the anthracite coal tax repealer is about to bear fruit. I see where it is recommended that this tax be removed, our efforts have brought that about, and so if we have legislation which may not pass the particular legislature that you should like to see it passed in, the right of public hearings in committees is not denied by this change. I think the light can be let in on any bill and get the necessary votes that were heretofore necessary for placing a bill on the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committe, and so forth.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the greatest force in the Commonwealth is public sentiment. No committee in this House can long deny the power of concentrated public sentiment. When bills are introduced into this House they are immediately printed in liberal quantity, and any member that is especially interested in a particular bill can mail it to all interested people all over the length and breadth of the Commonwealth, and if he can concentrate an interest in a piece legislation of sufficient volume and force and importance, even though a committee were indiscreet enough to attempt to stifle it, it would not be difficult to get one hundred five members of the House to vote it out. The members of this House all know that a vote of one hundred five members is much more readily secured for the purpose of discharging a committee from further consideration of a bill than it is for the purpose of passing that bill.. Very frequently many of us have out of respect for a member gone along and assisted in placing the bill on the calendar notwithstanding the fact that the committee was reluctant, even though we knew at the time that it was not the wish of our constituents to pass it, and that it did not square with our own judgment. There is the personnel of this committee right inside of the first cover and the first member of this committee is Thomas Bluett. This work was not done in haste. This committee was appointed on April 16, 1925, and two years were used to give consideration to this work. These rules are carefully worked out. They are in exact accord with the rules of the Senate. The gentleman from Berks says there is distinction because the Senate is the smaller body. It requires a majority there, why should it not require a majority here. Majority rule everywhere. It requires a majority in the Congress of the United States to discharge a committee from the further consideration of a bill; it requires a majority in practically every Legislature of the states of the Union. Then the gentleman from Berks said that he read numerous publications that this is a bossed Legislature. Now, ladies and gentlemen of the House, the only answer I want to make is this: You consult your own conscience and your own experience and answer that question for yourselves. Have you been bossed? If there has ever been a legislature assembled in this hall whose purpose it was to give to the people of Pennsylvania a business-like administration from beginning to end, it is the Legislature of 1927. I ask you to go along and vote for this report.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Rules Committees?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Marcus, and Mr. Hess were as follows

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

ADDITIONAL BUDGET INFORMATION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, February 15, 1927.

To the members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

When I presented the Budget for 1927-29 to the General Assembly, I promised to submit at a later time additional information regarding the State Aided Hospitals and the State Aided Homes. I therefore present herewith a statement showing the appropriations, earnings and receipts of the State Aided Hospitals for the biennium 1923-25, and for the period June 1, 1925 to August 31, 1926, taken from the reports submitted by the Hospitals and audited by the Auditor General's Department; also showing the appropriations, expenditures, population and per capita data of State Aided Homes for the biennium 1923-25 and the period from June 1, 1925, to August 31, 1926, as exhibited by the reports submitted by the Institutions.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. FISHER.

The SPEAKER. The communication of the Governor is referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

RESOLUTION No. 3.

RELATIVE TO LEGISLATION FOR EMERGENECY OFFICERS.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. SPEAKER, I desire to call up at this time concurrent resolution No. 3, file folio 587.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the clerk.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania does respectfully request Congress of the United States to adopt legislation which will provide for retirement privileges for disabled emergency officers of the army under the same conditions now provided by law for officers of the regular army in so far as regards physical disability in line of duty

Resolved That the Secretary of the Commonwealth forward a copy of this resolution to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States and a copy to each Member and Senator from Pennsylvania in Congress of the United States

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER: If there is no objection the Chair will declare a recess until 4:00 o'clock P. M. The chair hears none.

Whereupon the Chair declared a recess until 4:00 o'clock P.M.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 4:00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 227, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine (Pamphlet Laws six hundred forty-seven) entitled "An act relating to void marriages" enlarging the jurisdiction of courts to annul marriages on the ground of bigamy and discontinuing the requirement of residence of the libellant

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I am asked to explain this bill. The caption of it does not just show what the meaning of the bill is. As far as your divorce proceedings are concerned this bill has nothing to do with that excepting this: at the present time a man or woman who is convicted of bigamy must be tried before the court of the county in which the marriage occurred. The law provides that the court of quarter sessions may declare a marriage null and void. That does not, however, give the innocent party a decree. You must go into the court of common pleas afterwards to obtain a decree. The record of that bigamous marriage or the record of conviction of bigamy is all in the court of the county in which the marriage occurred. This bill, therefore, adds to the jurisdiction, in addition to the jurisdiction already had at the present time, the residence of either party, adds to it the jurisdicion of the county in which the marriage occurred. That is of course for the benefit of the innocent party, because the innocent party is the only one that can get a decree and so in order to save trouble to him or her, whichever the innocent party may be, I have asked in this bill that the law may be extended to the county in which the marriage occurred.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 28, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and twenty-one) entitled "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal" as amended allowing additional deductions

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the sponsor of this bill, I move that House Bill No. 28, the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 442, entitled:

An Act to provide for the better and more orderly development of Counties of the third fourth and fifth classes authorizing the creation of County Planning Commissions therein and prescribing their duties and powers requiring the approval and recording of all plans plots replots and subdivisions of land and providing penalties for failure to obtain such approval and for recording without such approval authorizing the approval and recording of plans prepared by the commission and providing for the protection of projects contemplated by them and authorizing the making by County Commissioners of appropriations for the work of the commissions

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, a number of the members of the House have asked me questions with relation to this bill. It is a bill providing for a county planning commission. It does not differ very much from the commissions that now exist in cities of the third class and boroughs and first class townships. There are some questions that have been raised by the utility companies as to some of the provisions of this act. I might say there is another bill which I have also introduced providing for a regional planning commission on which the same questions are raised. We are going to have a hearing before the committee tomorrow to see if we cannot explain away the difficulties which now exist in the minds of these people. The things that they fear already exist in the city and borough and township planning commissions and I don't believe will provide any stumbling block when we are able to explain them. Should any members of the House have any question I should like to have them submit it to me before tomorrow evening, at which time we are going to have this conference, but I would ask that the House pass this bill at this time, and I assure you that any questions that may arise in your minds will be carefully considered. This bill does not differ in any detail from the usual planning commission. If any one has any questions to ask me I will be glad to hear them.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 335, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight (Pamphlet Laws eighty-seven) entitled "An act to prevent deception in the sale of butter and cheese

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill and the four following ones under my name on today's calendar are a part of the general repealers, and in accordance with the motion made last night by Mr. Sowers I present the exposition to be made a matter of record in the Journal.

This Act regulates the sale of oleomargarine. It was supplied by the Act of May 24, 1883, P. L. 43.

1879, June 11, P. L. 139 (COUNTIES.)

This is a supplement to the Act of April 17, 1878, P. L. 17, which act provided a procedure for the erection of new counties. The Act of 1878 was repealed by the Act of June 27, 1895, P. L. 398, and as this seems to depend for its operation upon the Act of 1878, it would seem to fall with the repeal of that act.

1879, March 13, P. L. 6 (COUNTIES.)

This is a supplement to the act of April 17, 1878, P. L. 17 providing for the erection of new counties. This act provides certain procedure to be followed after a new county has been created under the act of 1878. The act of 1878 was repealed by the act of June 27, 1895, P. L. 398. The Act of 1879 is entirely dependent upon the act of 1878, and would seem to fall with the repeal of that act. It is considered repealed by the Digests.

1879, April 22, P. L. 26 (CITIES.)

This is a supplement to the Act of April 17, 1878, P. L. 17, and provides for the transfers of actions, liens, etc. in the formation of new counties. The Act of 1878 was repealed by the Act of June 27, 1895, P. L. 398. It seems from a reading of this act that it would of ncessity fall with the repeal of the original act. It is considered repealed by the Digests.

1879, May 21, P. L. 73 (BOROUGHS)

This act provides for the collection of sewer assessments made prior to the date of the passage of the act. The act is now obsolete. It is so considered by the Digests.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

9 Provided however That it is the intent of this section that substantial powers be reserved to the cities boroughs and townships situated in Allegheny County To this end the charter shall provide for the continued existence of the said cities boroughs and townships as municipal divisions of the consolidated city under their present names and forms of government subject to the laws provided for government of municipalities of their respective forms and classes except as provided in the charter and with their present boundaries provided that the city of Pittsburgh may be designated by a term other than city and may be divided into two or more municipal divisions and that any two or more municipal divisions of the consolidated city may with the consent of a majority of the electors voting thereon in each of such divisions at any general or special election be united to form a single municipal division

The said municipal divisions shall have and continue to posses the following powers

1 The constitutional and legal capacity of municipal corporations except as limited in the charter

2 The power to lay and collect taxes and to incur indebtedness subject to the limitations which are or may be imposed by law upon cities boroughs or twwnships of corresponding classification for the purpose of carrying out any lawful power of said divisions

3 The power to acquire own construct maintain operate or contract for all kinds of public property works improvements utilities or services which shall be within the municipal division and principally for the use and benefit of the inhabitants thereof provided this power shall not be taken to include the construction and maintenance of thorough-traffic streets and bridges tunnels subways and appurtenances thereof nor main or trunk lines for sewer power and water service running through more than one municipal division and designated as such by the board of commissioners

4 The power to maintain a local police force and local fire department with the necessary buildings appurtenances and equipment therefor which may be supplemental to the police force and fire department of the consolidated city

5 The power to establish a limitation of indebtedness for the consolidated city and the municipal divisions thereof provided that the total of the indebtedness of the consolidated city and the municipal divisions thereof shall not in the aggregate exceed the limits of the total indebtedness allowed by the Constitution to the county and to the separate municipalities

6 All other powers not specifically granted by the charter to the consolidated city Provided however That a municipal division may surrender by majority vote of the electors voting thereon at any general or special election any of its powers to the consolidated city subject to the acceptance thereof by the board of commissioners

The said charter may be amended by the Legislature subject to ratification by a majority of the electors of the consolidated city voting thereon at any general or special election Provided That no amendment reducing the powers of municipal divisions shall be effective unless ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon in each of a majority of said divisions

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOWE. I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny if he will not allow this bill to go back to the Committee for the purpose of a hearing before the House committee, which is the proper place for a hearing.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, That interrogation was decided when I declined the request of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Howe, that this bill be recommitted to the committee for a public hearing. I said on the floor at that time, and repeat it again, that if there is to be a public hearing on this bill, I have every reason to believe that the Senate will agree to do it there.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I listened very attentively to my good friend from Schuylkill County this morning when he said that the only way to get light on any particular bill was to turn the daylight in by a public hearing. We are voting on something here that I don't know anything about, and I am sure my colleagues don't know anything about, or at least several of them, and we don't know what we are voting on. We do know that they propose to take all of the boroughs and third class cities and townships into a metropolitan district and form the County of Allegheny into one city of Pittsburgh. Our boroughs and townships are very, very bitterly opposed to it. The newspapers this morning from Pittsburgh carried quite a lot of publicity about how our boroughs are opposed to it, and I would ask every fair minded member of the House to go along with us and vote this bill down.

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, with reference to this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny County if he knows the actual figures of the bonded indebtedness of the city of Pittsburgh.

Mr. MARCUS. In answering the question of the gentleman from Allegheny as to whether I know the figures of the bonded indebtedness of the city of Pittsburgh, I would state to the gentleman that I don't know.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny on one point further. Is there any provision in this metropolitan bill relating to the public schools outside of the present limits of the city of Pittsburgh.

Mr. MARCUS. I believe, Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Allegheny County with reference to the information that he desires, that is to be provided for in the event that this constitutional amendment passes the voters of Allegheny County, and then it must be submitted to the Legislature of 1929 in the form of a charter.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Is there anything in the present bill relating to public schools outside of the city of Pittsburgh? That is my question.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I have already answered that question.

Mr. BALDRIGE. I thank you, Mr. Marcus.

Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am speaking today under quite a disadvantage. I was not aware of the fact that this bill had reached the calendar last Wednesday. I travelled all night, I left Pittsburgh at 12:15 this morning and got here at 5:40 in order to oppose this bill. This bill is not a new bill to a good many of the old members; it has a new cloak on it, but it is the same thing that the House in 1911 overwhelmingly defeated, namely, the Greater Pittsburgh idea. This bill applies only to Allegheny County, and I hope and trust that you men and women of this House will give us a square deal and a square shake, and I know you will. That is all we are asking for. As the county of Allegheny at the present time is constituted we have the city of Pittsburgh, we have the city of McKeesport, the city of Duquesne and the city of Clairton and one hundred and twenty-one other municipal units consisting of large boroughs and townships lying outside of the city of Pittsburgh. The population outside of the city equals or is greater than the population in the city, and in Mayor Kline's speech last night over the radio broadcast throughout the county and over the State, and published in today's paper, the wealth outside of the city is equivalent to the wealth inside of the city.

Now, I want to explain a few of the facts in this bill and why we are opposed to it. We have been opposed to it since 1911 and even Mayor Kline, and I say it with due respect to Mayor Kline, there is not a better posted, better qualified man in the State of Pennsylvania, there is no better man to speak on municipal law and municipal authority, he was twice elected mayor of the city of Pittsburgh and did more for the city of Pittsburgh than any two men elected before or since, and he said that in his bill of 1911 he did not intend to go half so far as this bill contemplates. He goes further and says this is a drastic bill and a vicious bill, and that it makes it more difficult instead of simplifying tax matters—it makes it more difficult.

They call this the metropolitan bill. The idea of the name was derived from New York City, but if you will examine this bill carefully, ladies and gentlemen of the House, you will find that instead of being a metropolitan bill it is merely a cloak to fool you and to fool the people. I dare say that no two of our Common Pleas judges would place the same construction on this bill. The sponsor of it, a citizen of our town, president of the borough league, is the man that is really behind this bill, and he has been opposed to a Greater Pittsburgh bill all his life, and he told me with his own lips that the only reason he was back of this bill was to forever prohibit and prevent a greater Pittsburgh. Is that the idea that you people have in your mind when you are asked to vote for this bill. If once this constitutional amendment is adopted, I want to explain the two thirds idea of this bill as offered in the amendment at the last special session. The two thirds idea only applies until the metropolitan unit is created; then if you go down to the last paragraph of that bill, by a mere majority vote in the county they can give us any kind of a charter or take away anything. In our last election the city of Pittsburgh tried, or thought they were going to try, to float a thirty million dollar bond issue on top of their now staggering debt. When they came to examine their finances they found that twenty three million dollars would exhaust their bonding power by a vote of the people under the act of Assembly governing such a case. So to fool the people they voted a bond issue of nineteen millions and put that on those people. Their taxes are sky high, that is why they want us in there. That is why they want us, it is not the idea of making another first class city in the state of Pennsylvania. You men from Philadelphia stop to consider what another first class city would mean to Philadelphia when you come down here to pass legislation. Don't forget that Maybe some of you have not even thought of it. We people in our county that have to watch the borough and township and third class city legislation know how difficult it is to get a bill through this House that satisfies the different angles in these different municipal units. I want to say this, there is nothing for the boroughs or the townships or the third class cities in Allegheny County to gain by having this bill become a law. I don't know of a single man outside of Joe Miller, the sponsor, and one tax collector in a little borough. When I was a candidate at the last election because of my campaign issue that I was opposed to this particular bill, he was against me, and in spite of his opposition I led the ticket in every precinct in his borough That spoke louder of what the people want back there. Bear in mind, gentlemen, the organization of Allegheny County backed four other men; they didn't back me.

I take the position under the School Code that the minute this metropolitan district bill is passed and becomes a fact if it ever does, under our School Code, Pittsburgh is a first class school district, and every little school in that whole county is automatically operated under the Pittsburgh Board of Education, one of the most extravagant institutions we have in our county; is not elected by the people, it is appointed by the judges of the Common Pleas Court. They are so highbrowed and so stuck-up that they have a visiting committee, and if any of the parents of those pupils should want to get an interview, should want to go and ask for information, if it is only a civil question, they are almost insulted. We do not want that kind of thing. Give us a square shake. We are a contented people, we have everything that they can give us; we have our own municipal plants, our own fire departments, our own police department, our own paved streets and good water, and we are contented and happy. Remember the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." We don't want it. I say to you in all fairness this bill is un-American. It is nothing more than political aggrandizement, acquisition, grabbing people by the neck and bringing them in when they don't want to come in. If they once get the amendment to the constitution, they can harass these boroughs and townships and third class cities every time there is a special or general election, with these special provisions, everytime it comes up, without any limit.

Now, I don't want to talk any longer on this bill. It is not right and the people do not want it. McKeesport is having a big indignation meeting Friday night in opposition to this bill. The time in Wilkinsburg, the town where I have lived for fifteen years, the voters voted seven to one against the proposition. Consider what we are asking for. We are not asking for anything. As the law now stands any borough or third class city can come into the city of Pittsburgh if it wants to, and that is as it should be. That is a sound American principle, but they come down here and ask you men and you women to grab us and make us go into the city of Pittsburgh, and that is more than we want. I ask you to vote no on this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it appears to me that those who have opposed this bill are speaking from a selfish motive. I don't blame these gentlemen for opposing this bill because they come from that particular district that is opposed to is such as boroughs and townships. Apparently these men are ashamed of Pittsburgh when they don't want to become a part of it. I don't know why. They should be proud to become part of the great manufacturing district of the city of Pittsburgh. You must bear in mind the selfish motive of each and every member outside of the city of Pittsburgh, who is going to oppose this bill, is for the reason that the burgess, the council and all members of the forces of the various boroughs and townships are egging on these men to vote against this bill for the reason that they will be out of a job, and we all know when you have a concentrated purpose or effort, in other words, consolidation, that your overhead is less than by having a lot of very little municipalities surrounding the city of Pittsburgh. Take it in business experience, you consolidate various plants for the purpose of reducing overhead, that is what we are attempting to do in Allegheny County. The city of Pittsburgh pays more than two-thirds of the taxes of Allegheny County. I am surprised that these members come here and say that the country districts around pittsburgh pay more taxes than we do. The city of Pittsburgh bears the burden, why should not she have the profit; why should not she have the distinction of going throughout the country and saying she is next to Philadelphia. We are proud of Philadelphia as the first city of the State, and we are going to be proud when we say that Pittsburgh is second to Philadelphia and possibly the second largest city of the State. We will be proud when we can come in here and ask you to vote for a bill of this kind so as to put us upon the map. I am surprised that the opponents come in here and try to instil something into your minds that is absolutely untrue. It is not true, what they tell you, that the surrounding boroughs are opposed to this bill except for the reason that I have given you, that they are opposed to it because these petty officeholders are afraid of losing their jobs.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I appreciate the fact that you have listened to discoussions on this constitutional amendment, and without any further desire of encroaching on your time, I wish to state to the members of this House that there is no selfish thought in the minds of the people of Pittsburgh sponsoring this legislation. We consider this legislation wholesome and constructive, and for the best welfare of all the taxpayers of Allegheny County. I have no grievances, no complaint to offer to any man on the floor of this House who may differ with me, but I am a great believer in the slogan which Pittsburgh has adopted and is carrying into action, that "Pittsburgh Promotes Progress." This resolution was introduced in the extraordinary session of 1926. It has been debated in every corner of Allegheny County and you now have it again before you for it being a constitutional amendment must pass two sessions of this House. I wish to state to the members of this body that the voters of Allegheny County will be given an opportunity to affirm or reject this resolution by a vote. There are one hundred twenty-three municipalities in the county of Allegheny. If this resolution should meet with the approval of the people of Allegheny County, sixty-two municipalities would have to declare in favor of it, and in the sixty-two that would pass in favor of it they would have to show in those sixty-two municipalities a two-thirds vote,and if the people of Allegheny County have a right by a two-thirds vote to determine this proposition, it surely is fair and it surely is equitable. The differences can be adjusted in Allegheny County. We ask that this resolution be passed by this body to carry the banner of Pittsburgh's progress and give us an added census that we need. The population in the city of Pittsburgh is approximately 600,000; the population outside of the city in the county is possibly 600,000 or a little more, so therefore you have an equal division of the voting population. What we ask for is that the voters of Allegheny County be given this opportunity, and ask it in all fairness because we believe this legislation to be constructive. We believe this legislation will put Pittsburgh on the map and give us that added census which will be a stimulus to every city in the United States to say that Pittsburgh is a big city, that we have the facilities to invite industrial institutions to come to us; we will show by that added census that we can solve the labor problem. Give us the opportunity that we ask for and let the people of Allegheny County determine whether we shall march forward or not. Give us your favorable consideration on this resolution. I ask in all fairness to give us that opportunity and vote "aye" on this resolution.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, the gentlemen from Allegheny made the statement just now that he wants the people of Allegheny County to determine this question of a constitutional amendment. Do not all the people of the State vote on that amendment?

Mr. MARCUS. All the people of the State vote on this resolution, but the vote of the people of Allegheny County will determine the question of whether or not this resolution shall come back to the Legislature in the session of 1929 with a charter.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. How do they do that, just a part of the state? I voted against the motion to recommit this bill last night, not being thoroughly familiar with what it meant. I am trying to get information. I understand a constitutional amendment is submitted to all the people of the State.

Mr. MARCUS. That is correct.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Now, what has Allegheny County got to do with that individually other than that they are a part of the State?

Mr. MARCUS. The result in that one particular county would show it.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Yet in order to pass an amendment to the Constitution the question will be submitted to the entire State, and the vote of the entire State will determine it, will it not?

Mr. MARCUS. Yes, to the extent of judging each section and determining the strength of how that vote has gone, but the entire State will pass on it.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, it has been said on the floor of the House that nobody knows what this bill means. I have been surprised here in the last five minutes to hear two gentlemen from Allegheny County get up and express themselves on this bill, one of them is the author of the bill and he gave the gentleman from Armstrong County an answer to a question which has convinced me in my own mind that he really don't know what the bill means. Our friend from Allegheny County, Mr. Stadtlander, has said that the boroughs and townships are opposed to this bill for the simple reason that it takes the township commissioners and the burgesses out of office. The bill does not do anything of the kind. That is where Mr. Stadtlander has another guess coming. Mr. Marcus has said that Allegheny County will determine whether the amendment passes the State or not. That is for the State to decide and not us. If you will go back with me you will remember the city of Pittsburgh used to be called the "Steel City," I mean s-t-e-e-l. I used to visit in the city of Pittsburgh and the steel works were always a wonder to me. If you go down to the city of Pittsburgh today you don't see the steel works any more, they are out in the boroughs and townships. What has done this? Nothing but the greed for taxes by the city of Pittsburgh. Now, they are reaching out and trying to grab the boroughs and townships. They need the money but we think it is for the personal aggrandizement of a few people in Pittsburgh who want to rule over a city of a million population, they want to take the boroughs and townships in Allegheny County and put them in the city of Pittsburgh. Now, it was in the public press of last week that twelve members of this Allegheny County delegation would be permitted to vote against this bill. I want to say in all fairness to this House that nobody has said that we should not or should vote against this bill. We are going to vote against it, the twelve farmers, I hope. We are farmers out there and I ask this House for a square deal, that is all we want. We know how you feel up in Indiana County or any other county if some large city was trying to gobble you up. We have in our own borough seven hundred thousand dollars worth of municipal improvements including an electric light plant and a water plant. Now, if the city of Pittsburgh comes out there and takes us, we will have to buy our power from the big corporations, which we do not want to do. I ask this House in all fairness to give this bill consideration and vote no.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I voted for this bill in 1926 at the special session, and I made a campaign this year, or rather last year, in the primaries on the merits of the bill. I was opposed by all the factions in Allegheny County for re-election or re-nomination I might say, and I was at a banquet one evening and heard a great deal of opposition to the bill, but the personnel of the banquet were members of various council and township boards throughout the county at large. The banquet officials put out pamphlets at that time, and the local newspapers, not the large city papers, but the local borough periodicals published this proposed constitutional amendment in sectional form. In making my campaign for renomination I stressed the fact that my vote today would depend entirely upon what I heard throughout the district. I say frankly I heard no opposition whatever in my legislative district, which I think is one of the largest, if not the largest outlying section of Allegheny County. Therefore, I believe that the greater portion of the electors in my district favor this bill or else have hesitated to try to induce members of the Assembly to vote the way they want them to vote. I reiterate the statement that I have received no protests whatever against voting for this measure, and therefore, Mr. Speaker, I want to assure the personnel of this House that I will support the measure as it stands.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. I want to be clear on this, all you are asking us to do is to submit to the electors of Pennsylvania this constitutional amendment as to whether or not they will agree to the constitutional amendment. Is that not all this bill does?

Mr. MARCUS. That is all it does.

Mr. WILSON. Then, if the constitutional amendment submitted for approval by the electors is approved by the electors, the Legislature then passes an act submitting to the voters of Allegheny County this charter.

Mr. MARCUS. That is correct.

Mr. WILSON. All we are doing now is submitting to the people of Pennsylvania this constitutional amendment as to whether or not we shall afterwards give to the electors of Allegheny County a certain proposition of consolidation.

Mr. MARCUS. That is correct, as I said before.

Mr. WILSON. All we have now is a question of a constitutional amendment, and let the people vote on it.

Mr. MARCUS. That is correct.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Evans.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Evans, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny what position he took during the annexation of the borough of Carrick to the city of Pittsburgh in the last election.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to answer the gentleman, Mr. Baldrige, in this manner: I took no action whatever because it is a local affair, and I was supposed to be a member of the Legislature, a state official otherwise. I take no interest whatever in local affairs.

Mr. BALDRIGE. I thank you.

Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am glad that the gentleman got on the the floor to speak for this bill, because it brought to my mind one thing I overlooked. At the last general election the borough of Carrick and the borough of Knoxville by a vote of their own municipalities voted to go in to the city and on the first day of January of this year they became a part of the city of Pittsburgh. To give you some idea———.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STADTLANDER. The gentleman is not talking on the bill.

Mr. BALDRIGE. I am, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine himself to the subject of this bill.

Mr. BALDRIGDE. ———and to show you what happened when these boroughs were taken into the city of Pittsburgh, they had one motorcycle policeman and one patrolman———.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I still press my point of order.

Mr. BALDRIGE. I am speaking on the bill, Mr. Speaker. When the city of Pittsburgh got full control of it they took away the motorcycle policeman and gave them three patrolmen. They have had two different assaults under the city of Pittsburgh by ruffians upon young white ladies walking over the streets. They have held since a public meeting of the Chamber of Commerce condemning the city's laxity in giving proper police protection. We don't want that kind of stuff.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Because of a statement of my colleague, Mr. Baldrige, he evidently refers to the municipality in which I reside, and I believe it behooves me to answer to a certain extent the statements he made.

First, I don't think that the statements he made should be used as an argument against this particular bill. The annexation or what we term the marriage of a borough to the city, is an entirely different matter than what is proposed in this constitutional amendment. We had a great number of police in our borough, that is true. I also wish to call the attention of the House that I did not take into consideration any local affairs because they are affairs of the municipal authorities and not mine. If I wanted to run the borough I would be elected burgess, or try to be at least, or get on council, but I don't represent Carrick borough alone. It is now known as the twenty-ninth ward of the city of Pittsburgh, and I represent the entire twelfth legislative district of Allegheny County, or try to at least. I know that there was an indignation meeting, but I have not heard from any of these gentelmen in protest relative to this measure, despite the fact that they are all intimate friends of my own, I have known them for twenty-two years, have lived with them, even within a block of them, and I assure you if there was any protest from these very same gentlemen that had this indignation meeting against this metropolitan bill they would advise me accordingly. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I feel that I am obliged to ask you to put these statements upon the record in order to correct any wrong impressions that may have been derived from the statements of Mr. Baldrige.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 7, 8 and 9 by striking out the following "laying out, adopting and fostering the improvement of highway routes and transcontinental highways" and inserting in lieu thereof: "fostering the laying out, adopting and improvement of highway routes and transcontinental highways and limiting the amount of real estate to be held by first class corporations."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection. The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 20, entitled:

An Act regulating the trial of cross actions in trespass and the effect of verdicts therein when tried separately

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That cross actions in trespass where the plaintiff in one action is the defendant in the other and the causes of action arise from the same subject matter shall not be consolidated or tried together in any court of common pleas except by order of such court upon petition in which both parties join

If such cross actions are not so consolidated or tried together the verdict in the first action tried shall not be conclusive as to the other

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 1, line 7 by striking out the words "any court of common pleas" and inserting in lieu thereof "the same or different courts of record"

Amend Section 1, page 1, line 8 by striking out the words "such court" and inserting in lieu thereof "the court or courts"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

An Act regulating the trial of cross actions in trespass and the effect of verdicts therein when tried separately

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 217, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (Pamphlet Laws forty-seven) entitled "An act supplementary to the act entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations' approved the twenty-ninth day of April Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-four extending its provisions to all who may have the right to vote at elections for directors managers or trustees" regulating the manner of voting in first class corporations

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (Pamphlet Laws forty-seven) entitled "An act supplementary to the act entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations' approved the twenty-ninth day of April Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-four extending its provisions to all who may have the right to vote at elections for directors managers or trustees" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all elections for directors managers or trustees of any corporation created under the provisions of this statute or accepting its provisions each member or stockholder or other person having a right to vote may cast the whole number of his votes for one candidate or distribute them upon two or more candidates as he may prefer that is to say If the said member or stockholder or other person having a right to vote own one share of stock or has one vote or is entitled to one vote for each of six directors by virtue thereof he may give one vote to each of said six directors or six votes for any one thereof or a less number of votes for any less number of directors whatever may be the actual number to be elected and in this manner may distribute or cumulate his votes as he may see fit all elections for directors or trustees shall be by ballot and every share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote in person or in second class corporation by proxy to be exercised as provided in this section

In the case of first class corporations voting by members shall be only in person unless the by-laws of the corporation shall specifically provide for voting by proxy

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

In the House of Representatives, January 18, 1927.

Whereas The Federal Estate Tax law as amended the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six provides that the estate liable thereunder shall be credited with any inheritance tax paid by its beneficiaries to the state or states the credit not to exceed eighty per cent and

Whereas This amendment is in derogation of the rights of the states because its object is to persuade them to abandon their state inheritance tax laws in favor of statutes based on the Federal law and giving effect to a joint levy upon estates by the nation and the state and

Whereas The Federal tax is not required for revenue and is useful only as a means of coercing the states and

Whereas The policy of joint levies is contrary to the theory of this government and an aggression upon the authority jurisdiction and independence of the legislatures of the sovereign states therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That we hereby memorialize the present Congress of the United States to repeal immediately the Federal Estate Tax provisions of the revenue law effective the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six and vacate this field of taxation in time of peace

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in Congress of the United States

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.
The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend in line one by striking out the word "deorgation" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "derogation".

On the question,
Will the House concur in the amendment?
It was concurred in.
Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1927 — 127th of the General Assembly

Vol. 10. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1927. No. 15

SENATE.

MONDAY, February 21, 1927.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Arthur H. James) in the chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, we do not come to Thee in any formal way this night. Three invisible forms appear before us that stir patriotic feeling in our hearts; and, as the ancient citizen of Greece would wander amid the statues of his heroes to recall their days of valor, so we pause a moment to honor the memory of the men and women who laid broad and deep the foundation of the grandest Republic ever organized during the course of human history. And one of the most conspicuous figures in that history, the Commander in Chief of the Armies, is marked for his prayerful dependence upon God, his military skill and almost unparalleled vision, George Washington,—born an aristocrat but despised royalty, identified himself with the armies of the colonies, and successfully led them to victory—although he had to contend with foes within and enemies without, refusing a kingly crown was the President of the Federated States.

We thank Thee and praise Thee to-night, and honor the fifty-six men who signed the Declaration of Independence,—the grandest piece of political wisdom the world has ever seen.

We thank Thee for the flag which Thou hast given us. Every star beams like a gem of beauty upon her brow, and every stripe beams like a bow of promise to the nation,—the first national flower to bloom on the sturdy soil of American Independence, the rarest plant of American patriotism, the fairest wreath that fluttered on the brow of American Freedom. We love the flag to-night, and our hearts are filled with patriotic fervor for this symbol of the nation's glory, the hope of the oppressed millions of the world.

May Thy blessing rest upon us this night.

Pessimists tell us that this is a degenerate age, an age of materialism, an age of pelf and plunder; but it is not so,—men as knightly perfect as ever graced an age still live and adorn the high places of the land. Here are men who come before any nation on issues of state; and in the fierce battle of debate, yet, our Father, the fires of patriotism burn upon the altars of their souls; and, if necessary, they would let out every drop of blood in their veins in defense of the Constitution of the United States. May Thy blessing rest upon these men.

And we pray Thy blessing to rest upon the Governor of the State. May he have health and strength in the arduous duties which lie before him. May the wisdom and dignity of Washington, and the integrity and courage of Lincoln and the brotherly heart of McKinley rest upon the presiding officer of this Senate. Bless every employe of the State. Bless the genial secretary of this body. May the blessing of God be upon his helpers, and upon these page boys who go in and out among these halls. May the love of country and flag and all that is dear fill their hearts. And we will give Thee the praise now and forever, in the Name of Him who hung on the cross for us. Amen.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and considertion of Senate Bill No. 64, as follows:

An Act authorizing the district attorneys of counties of the fourth class to take and keep a record of finger prints of persons charged with crime providing for the employment of an expert on finger prints and for his compensation payable by the county

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in connection with the investigation and trial of any case wherein a defendant is charged with a violation of the penal laws of this Commonwealth the district attorney of any county of the fourth class wherein such case is to be tried is hereby empowered to employ the services of an expert on finger prints to assist him in such investigation and to testify upon the trial of any such case

Section 2 The district attorney the keeper of the county jail or any such expert so employed upon the written authority of the district attorney shall have power to take the finger prints in triplicate in accordance with the finger print system of the identification of criminals of any person confined in the county jail of such county for use in the identification of such prisoner and upon the trial of such prisoner

Section 3 The district attorney of each county shall have power to keep and arrange a file of the finger prints taken under the provisions of this act of persons convicted of crime and he shall destroy the finger prints of all persons acquitted The file of finger prints so kept by any district attorney shall be open to the inspection of any other district attorney of the Commonwealth or his representative or to any sheriff police or peace officer

Section 4 The compensation of any such expert on finger prints so employed shall be fixed by the district attorney with the approval of the court of quarter sessions and shall be paid from the county treasurer upon warrant of the county commissioners in the usual manner

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall not apply to a person arrested for misdemeanor unless the district attorney has reason to believe that he is an old offender against the penal laws of the Commonwealth

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

An Act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and seventy-one) entitled "An act in relation to appeals from justices of the peace and aldermen" as amended regulating appeal affidavits

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and seventy-one) entitled "An act in relation to appeals from justices of the peace and aldermen" which was amended by an act approved the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand nine hundred and three (Pamphlet Laws sixty-one) entitled "An act to amend section one of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven entitled 'An act in relation to appeals from justices of the peace and aldermen'" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 That from and after the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven no appeal shall be allowed from the judgment of a justice of the peace or alderman unless the appellant or his attorney or agent at the time of taking said appeal shall make affidavit in writing before the justice of the peace or alderman hearing the case that the appeal is not for delay but because he verily believes injustice has been done

Section 2 This act shall take effect on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 81, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the tenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and thirty-four) entitled "An act to empower courts of competent jurisdiction to issue writs of execution against property of defendant and attachment execution or in the nature of attachment execution against trusts including those commonly known as spendthrift trusts no matter when such trusts were created in cases where an order award or decree has been made against a husband for the support of his wife or children or both making such attachment execution against trusts a continuing lien and levy for fifty per centum of such money or property until the order judgment or decree is paid in full with costs and abolishing the benefits of the exemption law in such cases"

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the tenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and thirty-four) entitled "An act to empower courts of competent jurisdiction to issue writs of execution against property of defendant and attachment execution or in the nature of attachment execution against trusts including those commonly known as spendthrift trusts no matter when such trusts were created in cases where an order award or decree has been made against a husband for the support of his wife or children or both making such attachment execution against trusts a continuing lien and levy for fifty per centum of such money or property until the order judgment or decree is paid in full with costs and abolishing the benefit of the exemption law in such cases" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever any court of competent jurisdiction has made an order or entered a decree or judgment against any husband requiring him to pay any sum or sums for the support of his wife or children or both the court may issue the appropriate writ of execution against any property real or personal belonging to the defendant to enforce said order decree or judgment and the said court may issue a writ of attachment execution or writ in the nature of attachment execution against any money or property to which said husband is entitled whether under what is known as a spendthrift trust or otherwise and the said writ of attachment execution shall become a lien and continuing levy upon any money or property to which he may be in any way entitled whether under what is commonly known as a spendthrift trust or otherwise [and in cases of levy on or attachment of any trust said levy or attachment shall only be for fifty per centum thereof and shall remain a continuing levy] until the order decree or judgment has been paid in full with costs and in case of levy or attachment of any trust where the trust shall terminate before the order decree or judgment has been paid in full with costs if the principal of the trust fund is payable to the husband said levy or attachment shall remain a lien and continuing levy on the principal which was held in trust until payment in full has been made and in cases where the order decree or judgment requires the payment of stated sums at stated intervals said writ of attachment execution shall remain a lien and continuing levy until the last payment due under such order decree or judgment has been made with costs and in case of the termination of a trust before the final payment has been made if the principal of the trust fund is payable to the husband the trustee shall not pay over to the husband any of said principal until all payments ordered by the court together with costs have been paid from the principal or income of the trust fund or corporate security satisfactory to the court entered for the completion of all payments with costs The person against whom such an order decree or judgment is made shall not be entitled to the benefits of any exemption law now in force or hereafter passed The provisions of this act shall apply to any trust whether it is such a trust as is known as a spendthrift trust or otherwise whether such trust was created or came into existence before or after the passage of this act Where an attachment execution is issued the further proceedings therein shall be in the manner heretofore practiced and allowed in cases of foreign attachment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 1, page 3, line 7, by inserting the words "and all" between the words "any" and "money"; also, on line 12, by inserting a bracket after the word "thereof" and deleting the bracket after the word "levy"; also, on line 16, by correcting the spelling of the word "ben" to "been".

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following praper:

Oh Lord our God, Thou art from everlasting to everlasting. We are of time; Thou art of Eternity. We pray Thee tonight that Thou wouldst give unto us, as citizens of this State, a realization of how much we owe to the past. Help us remember what a long, weary pathway humanity has trodden to produce such a state as this and may we ever keep in loving remembrance the heroes who have made this nation and this commonwealth. May we realize the depths of gratitude we owe to all of those who led and those who fought for human liberty, and we may never in any way whatever be tempted to give up the liberties which have cost so much, but always strive to maintain them. May Thy rich blessing be tonight upon the Speaker and upon the members of this House as we commence the duties of this week. What we did last week is now history; what we do this week will be history in the weeks to come. And so may we try to carry on as or fathers did so that this state may grow better and stronger as the years go by. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication from the Legislature of the State of Washington, which was read as follows:

STATE OF WASHINGTON
Department of State
Olympia.

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL No. 3

TO THE HONORABLE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED:

We, your memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, most respectfully represent and pray as follows:

Whereas, under our present constitution the President, Senators and Representatives take up their duties many months after the day of election, and

Whereas, the provisions of the constitution herein sought to be amended are antiquated and unworkable under modern conditions, to such an extent as to be, in some cases, a positive menace to the best welfare of the Nation, and

Whereas, The Senate has seen fit to offer and pass a constitutional amendment known as the "Norse Amendment," providing that such officers shall take office promptly after election, and have sent the same to the House,

Therefore Be It Resolved: That, we, your memorialists, do earnestly and respectfully pray that the House of Representatives will take similar action at the earliest possible date and present the same to the legislatures of the various states for their adoption, and

Be It Further Resolved: That the Secretary of State, under the seal of the State of Washington, transmit to the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States at Washington, D. C., and to each Senator and Congressman from the State of Washington, and to the Legislature of each of the several states, a full, true, and correct copy of this Joint Memorial.

Passed the House January 26, 1927.

RALPH R. KNAPP,
Speaker of the House.

Passed the Senate February 3, 1927.

W. LON JOHNSON,
President of the Senate.

State of Washington }
County of Thurston } ss.

I, J. GRANT HINKLE, Secretary of State of the State of Washington, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of House Joint Memorial No. 3 as passed by the twentieth session of the Legislature of the State of Washington.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the resolution.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

RESOLUTION

In the Senate January 25, 1927.

Whereas, the Members of the General Assembly have received, through the mails, copies of a bill to fix the salaries of judges of the several courts of this Commonwealth, a copy of which is hereby attached, and

Whereas, said bill provides various increases in salaries, graduate salaries according to years of service, allows extra compensation for service with jury boards, extra compensation to president judges, extra compensation to judges for trying Commonwealth cases, extra compensation to judges in districts composed of more than one county, and increased compensation for serving in courts other than the ones to which elected, therefore be it,

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) in order that the Legislature may be fully advised as to the effect of the provisions of said bill, the Secretary of the Commonwealth is hereby requested to furnish to the Legislature the following information:

(a) The number of judges in the several judicial districts as classified by said bill.

(b) The present salaries of the said judges, by classes of districts as fixed by said bill.

(c) The total amount paid in salaries to judges under laws now in force.

(d) The salaries of the said judges by classes of districts as fixed by said bill based on the salaries set forth in said bill.

(e) The total amount payable in salaries to judges under the proposed bill.

(f) The increase in dollars by classes of districts in salaries as proposed in said bill over present salaries, and

(g) The per centage of such increase by classes of districts.

An Act classifying judicial districts and fixing salaries according to periods of service for the judges of the Supreme Court, the Superior Court, the Courts of Common Pleas, the Orphans' Courts, the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, and the County Court of Allegheny County, and providing additional compensation for judges who by law are made members of Boards of Jury Commissioners.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same:

(a) That every judge heretofore or hereafter appointed or elected to serve upon the Supreme Court, the Superior Court, the Courts of Common Pleas, the Orphans' Courts, the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, and the County Court of Allegheny County in lieu of the salaries now paid under existing laws shall receive the compensation hereinafter provided, based upon the schedule hereinafter set forth: during the first five-year period of service or any fraction thereof, a judge shall be entitled to receive the salary of the judges of the Court in which he is serving at the time such salary is drawn, as fixed by the basic schedule of compensation hereinafter particularly set forth; during the second five-year period of his service or any fraction thereof, he shall be paid an annual salary equal to one hundred and ten per cent. of the compenstion herein provided, as fixed by the basic schedule of compensation hereinafter particularly set forth for the judges of the court in which he is serving; during the third five-year period of his service or any fraction thereof, he shall be paid an annual salary equal to one hundred and fifteen per cent. of the compensation hereinafter provided for the judges of the court in which he is serving as fixed by the basic schedule of compensation hereinafter particularly set forth; after the expiration of a period of fifteen years of service he shall be paid an annual salary equal to one hundred and twenty per cent. of the compensation hereinafter provided for, the judges of the court in which he is serving as fixed by the basic schedule of compensation hereinafter particularly set forth.

(b) The time of service for each judge shall be computed from the day the first commission from the Governor authorized such judge to begin service on the court on which he is serving at the time the particular salary is drawn and shall continue from that date; and whenever the judicial service shall not be entirely in one court, the period of service shall be computed from the day of the first commission to the judge for the court in which he is serving at the time the particular salary is drawn. In computing the compensation of judges already in office when this act goes into effect the salaries shall be based on the schedule herein after set forth and the calculation shall be from the date they respectively were first commissioned for the court in which they are serving at the time the particular salary is drawn, so that each judge now in office shall receive compensation according to his period of past service in that court, based on the aforesaid schedule. Whenever the judicial service performed by any judge shall not have been continuous, the period of non-service shall be omitted in any calculation under this act.

BASIC SCHEDULES OF COMPENSATION.

Section 2. (a) Each of the judges of the Courts of Common Pleas learned in the law in all judicial districts of this Commonwealth shall be paid annual salaries computed in accord with the periods of service specified by section 1 (one of this act and according to the population of their respective judicial districts as determined by the latest census of the United States in the following manner: Less than forty thousand (40,000) population, seven thousand five hundred ($7,500) dollars; more than forty thousand (40,000) and less than fifty thousand (50,000) population, eight thousand ($8,000) dollars; more than fifty thousand (50,000) and less than seventy-five thousand (75,000) population, nine thousand ($9,000) dollars; more than seventy-five thousand (75,000) and less than one hundred thousand (100,000) population, ten thousand ($10,000) dollars; more than one hundred thousand (100,000) and less than one hundred and seventy thousand (170,000) population, eleven thousand ($11,000) dollars; more than one hundred and seventy thousand (170,000) and less than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) population, twelve thousand ($12,000) dollars; more than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) and less than one million (1,000,000) population, thirteen thousand ($13,000) dollars; more than one million (1,000,000) population, fourteen thousand ($14,000) dollars.

(b) In all judicial districts where separate Orphans' Courts are now, or may hereafter be, established the annual salary of each of the judges of said Orphans' Courts shall be the same as is paid to the judges of the Courts of Common Pleas.

(c) The annual salary of each of the judges of the Municipal Court of the County of Philadelphia and each of the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County shall be eleven thousand ($11,000) dollars.

(d) The annual salary of the chief justice and each of the associate judges of the Supreme Court shall be eighteen thousand ($18,000) dollars.

(e) The annual salary of the president judge and each of the associate judges of the Superior Court, shall be sixteen thousand five hundred ($16,500) dollars.

Section 3. Each of the judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County shall be paid in addition and after the salaries hereinbefore provided shall have been computed in accord with the periods of service specified in section 1 (one) of this act, for trying the civil cases of the Commonwealth the sum of three thousand ($3,000) dollars per annum.

Section 4. In addition and after the salaries hereinbefore provided are computed in accord with the periods of service specified in section 1 (one) of this act, in all judicial districts having more than one million population where the president judge of the Common Pleas Court by law is made a member of the Board of Jury Commissioners, such president judge shall receive for his service on said board the sum of three thousand ($3,000) dollars annually; and in all judicial districts having more than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) population where the judges of the Courts of Common Pleas by law are made members of the Board of Jury Commissioners, each of such judges shall receive for their services on said Board of Jury Commissioners the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars annually; and in all other judicial districts where judges of the Common Pleas Court by law are required to perform any official duty with the County Jury Commissioners, such judges for their services shall be paid the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars annually.

Section 5. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the president judge of the Superior Court shall be paid the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars, and the president judge of each of all the other courts shall be paid the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars per annum in addition and after the annual salaries hereinbefore provided shall have been computed in accord with the periods of service specified in section 1 (one) of this act.

Section 6. In all judicial districts consisting of one county and having one judge of the Common Pleas Court learned in the law, and where one or more counties are attached to such districts the judges of such judicial districts shall receive one thousand ($1,000) dollars per annum in addition to the salaries herein provided for holding the courts of the counties so attached to such district, and the judge of each judicial district having a population of more than seventy thousand (70,000) and which judicial district is composed of two or more counties shall receive one thousand ($1,000) dollars per annum in addition to the salary herein provided. Provided, That the additions to salaries provided in this section shall be added to the salaries fixed by section 2 (two) of this act, and before the annual salaries hereinbefore provided shall have been computed in accord with the periods of service specified in section 1 (one) of this act.

Section 7. When any judge learned in the law is called in as now provided by law to assist the judge or other judges of any other judicial district, such judge so called in shall be entitled to receive for each day he is actually engaged in the performance of such duty in payment for his services the sum of forty ($40) dollars per day and in addition thereto his actual railroad fare and hotel expenses incurred in traveling, the same to be paid in the same manner as judges are herein provided to be paid.

Section 8. The annual salaries and all additions to the annual salaries hereinbefore provided shall be paid monthly by warrant drawn by the Auditor General on the State Treasurer.

Section 9. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

The SPEAKER. Under the rules of the House, the resolution will lie over for printing.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker. Two weeks ago this evening, I handed up amendments to that resolution so that the present resolution should be amended in place of the one that was withdrawn. The amendments I offered I would like to have inserted in the resolution.

The SPEAKER. We cannot take any action until the resolution and the amendments are printed so the members will know on what they are acting.

RESOLUTION.

Mr. BALDI offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 21st, 1927.

Whereas, The friends of the Honorable George A. Welsh, a Member of the House of Representatives of the United States, from the city of Philadelphia, have presented him with a pair of boxing gloves in order to assist him in the protection of the honor and dignity of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, The said Honorable George A. Welsh is a law partner of the Honorable Speaker of this House, whose kindly disposition is likely to make him become the victim of one who, thus prepared, might assume the pugnacious disposition of a Tunney or Dempsey, and

Whereas, The possession of such implements of warfare by his partner might in time disturb the peace and tranquility which has always characterized the atmosphere in the law offices of those two eminent statesmen, and

Whereas, It is the desire of this House to maintain its own honor by assisting in every way to avoid the physical annihilation in the prize ring of its beloved and respected Speaker, and

Whereas, Prepardness is the best and only way to avoid war between nations and persons, and

Whereas, It is the further desire of this House that its Speaker, the Honorable Thomas Bluett should be given every opportunity consistent with honor to prepare to meet any attack contemplated by his pugilistically-inclined and prepared law partner, therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the Chief Clerk of the House be instructed to immediately purchase a pair of the latest designed and best quality boxing gloves, and present the same without further ceremony to the Speaker of the House, and that the said Clerk make arrangements to secure the services of some person to be approved by the Boxing Commission of the Commonwealth, to instruct the said Honorable Thomas Bluett in the manly art of self defense, and be it further

Resolved, That an item be inserted in the general appropriation bill to pay the costs of the gloves and the lessons.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BALDI. Mr. Speaker and members of the House it is an odd time to present this resolution perhaps in the minds of some of you gentlemen, but we have noticed in the different newspapers about the terrible condition of the Atlantic Ocean. We have also read about the different bits of trouble that has existed upon the floor of Congress of the United States. Now, should such a condition strike the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, I think it proper at this time to present this resolution, and first of all to have our good Speaker properly fortified. I was prompted to have this resolution introduced or drawn up originally by the fact on Saturday morning I noticed in one of the Philadelphia papers a photograph of our Speaker Bluett's partner Congressman Welsh sparring with a congressman from Indiana. I might say at this time that few of us know the strength and ability of Mr. Bluett's partner who at one time was the champion amateur boxer of Philadelphia, and I believe that we all love and respect our good Speaker enough to see that in the future he will be able to protect himself, for what one of us, who of us know when our friend the good Speaker returns to town and his office his partner might return from Washington, not feeling in the best of spirits and take a crack at our good Speaker, and it is for this reason that I have the opportunity and pleasure of presenting this resolution, and I trust that you will all give it serious consideration.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker is certainly proud of the fact that you as members want to take care of him by providing him with boxing gloves, but he assures you he doesn't need any boxing gloves for the purpose of having to take care of his partner. Sometimes it seems he might need boxing gloves for the purpose of taking care of himself at the hands of you members, some of you at any rate, and he will be very glad to have the boxing gloves to take care of himself in that particular.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 526, (Senate Bill No. 106.) file folio 45, on page 14 of today's calendar, bills on second reading, entitled:

be recommitted to the Committee on Counties and Townships for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. SOFFEL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Horn,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No.. 73, entitled:

An Act to restrain certain sports and parades on Memorial Day

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize there are certain interests desiring to defeat this bill, nevertheless, I am willing to go to the bat with those who want to play baseball and have this inning at the outset at tonight's first action on the bills. I realize that in our great patriotic city of brotherly love there are many who believe first of all in baseball and sports. I believe that although some individual members of the American Legion and even some local posts in large centers where sports are prevalent are not favorable to this bill, yet the American Legion in convention assembled endorsed this proposition almost unanimously. I believe there are two wonderful things in life, memory and sentiment. I believe there is sufficient memory and sentiment in Pennsylvania to give to those who defended this country and its flag in all wars a chance to properly and sacredly observe a portion of one day a year to their memory. I feel it a privilege and an honor to be the son of a man who fought the war of rebellion for the preservation of this Union. I might further add that were it not for the efforts of the boys is blue in 1861 to 1865 there would be no United States of America, no chance for commercialized sport, placing it above the level of the service of those men who died and their comrades who are now fast answering the last roll call.

I want to say to the members of the Worlds War and to the American Legion that the time may not yet have far enough elapsed for an appreciation of the sentiment and memory of what they fought for, but in the declining years, when that day means the same to them as it does to the boys in blue, they will feel grateful to Pennsylvania that she at least gave a chance to those boys who fought, to their families and their friends, and a host of other patriotic organizations of men and women who believe that this day at least might be given in part back to those for whom it was intended. When on Memorial Day it is impossible to hear the oration of the orator or the prayer by the pastor because a few hundred yards away there is a game of baseball and sports, I feel that it is a case of "Lest we Forget" the deeds of those who fought for our country. We are only asking to give a portion of that day back to where it belongs. We do believe that next to Sunday and Good Friday there is no more sacred holiday in the calendar of holidays than Memorial Day, and yet in the worldly pleasures of to-day a great many of us forget until we see the boys maimed and crippled and those fast passing to the last roll call, losing their prestige and strength as a political power, and when we realize that it may be some years before the boys of the World War realize their value and the value of the day, we ought to be in a sense ashamed of ourselves. And while I might be defeated in the cause for which I fight at the present time I am willing rather to be defeated for a good cause than to win in a cause for merely sordid, selfish greed. It means the giving up of one baseball game more than anything else on one day of the year, on part of that day, but I do believe that Pennsylvania has a duty to her soldier dead and the comrades living and that there is enough sentiment and memory and enough grateful appreciation of this service that on a roll call for this bill it will be carried.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. With all due respect for my friend from Northampton and with all due respect to the people who are back of this bill, I intend to vote no when the roll is called. There is no one in this House that believes more in fostering patriotism than I do, and if the passage of this bill would add one laurel to the crown of those boys who went across to the other side or the boys in blue I would be the last one to stand here and talk against it, but I am convinced that this bill will do neither. I am further aware of the fact that patriotism has a much larger and broader meaning than would appear from a reading of this bill. Patriotism is the love of one's country. Patriotism is the love of one's liberty and freedom, and when we put acts of assembly on the statute books of this kind restraining liberty and freedom of the people, if we keep on, there will be little in this country for anyone to have to live for. I believe for one that you cannot enact patriotism into the hearts of men any more than you can enact religion into the hearts of anyone. It is not by enacting laws of this kind that we raise the patriotic standard and when we take into consideration that many Legion Posts on Memorial Day morning, I know some members of the Legion in this House, that have told me that on Memorial Day morning they have baseball games for the purpose of raising funds, for the purpose of buying flowers to put on the graves of boys that were killed. Not only that, but we all know that the National game is a game of baseball. There is hardly a man, woman or child in the United States that does not take an interest in baseball, and we all know that on Memorial Day that every lot and every hamlet has its game of baseball play. True it is that many of them at some time during the day help to decorate the graves and all of these same boys and men enjoy themselves by seeing a game of base ball, and they are just as patriotic as many who stay at home. This act of assembly brings nothing and gives us nothing that helps in any way. At the same time we should take into consideration, and I admit the matter of dollars and cents when considered side by side with patriotism have no place whatever, yet on the other hand, we should take into consideration the American League and the National League, which means that if this bill passed that they cannot hold their ball games on the morning of Memorial Day, but what a loss that is. As I said in the beginning, if patriotism can be advanced in any material way by showing in any way any advantage to anybody, whether it be a soldier or who it may be, then I would step aside, but there is no advantage to be gained. It is simply a question of somebody wanting to do something to carry out the wishes of someone who thinks that this is an emblem of patriotism.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think we ought to remember that Memorial Day is a day set apart as a memorial for the soldiers who have died for us to live. Surely one little half day in our busy year is not too much to give to our soldier dead. We stand here tonight alive and well. When these boys went off we said to them, "When you come back nothing will be too good for you," and yet the Pennsylvania Legislature sits here tonight and refuses, if they vote this bill down, to give them one little half day when we hold them in loving memory. The forces that are against this bill are the commercial sporting interests. I don't know why we should show any tenderness to the National Baseball League, that double-crossing organization. It did'nt need Kennesaw Landis to show us that they had been double-crossing us for years. Everybody knows a world's series is thrown. Did you ever hear of a world's series being won in three games. Certainly not. They play seven games and you pay six dollars a game for the seven games. Three are thrown to one team, and three to another, and the seventh game goes to the town that has had the last new ball park. The public all knows this and indulges it. Why should we waste any sentiment on them? They have a double-header, every afternoon on Memorial Day and when you put the National Base Ball League against our soldiers and against the sentiment of our people in giving up a part of Memorial Day, which was the day set apart for our soldier dead, I think the bill should have every vote cast in favor of it. And not only the soldiers, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, but it is the habit of all of us to go to our cemeteries and hold in loving tenderness our beloved dead on this day. There are a great many people in this state who would like to see this bill pass. I hope you will vote for it.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen, two years ago when this same measure was up I opposed it and spoke against it, but since that time I have had a change of heart. When we consider what memorial day means to us as American citizens, I realize that in certain instances probably that may mean hardship on smaller communities who celebrate Memorial Day in the afternoon and have their sports in the morning. I believe we can so adapt our program that it will not be a hardship on any community. When you think what Memorial Day means, you will remember that in 1861 this country was severed by war, state fought against state, friend against friend, and brother against brother; and after the war was over:

"By the flow of the inland river,
Whence the fleets of iron have fled,
Where the blades of the grave grass quiver,
Asleep are the ranks of the dead.
These in the robings of glory,
Those in the gloom of defeat,
All with the battle blood gory
In the dusk of eternity meet.
They banish our anger forever
When they laurel the graves of the dead."

Memorial day has done something in uniting this once divided country, and I think we should deem it a privilege to celebrate Memorial Day. I think we should deem it a privilege to lay aside the care or daily toil and give at least a half a day for tenderness to those who gave of men's full measure of devotion that this nation might live. I will, therefore, be constrained to vote aye on this measure.

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, I yield to no man or woman in my regard for the veterans of 1861 and '65, yet in voting against this bill, I believe my position, which is the same as many other members of this House, should be explained. I take it this bill proposes to prohibit attendance at any sport or game at which an admission is charged. Apparently it does not go into the sports such as men of lesser means cannot afford. The men and women that I represent are made up to a large extent of working men and women that have little time for sport. They have little time to engage in the things which men and women of larger means can. Yet this bill is designed to take from them the chance of their game on the day on which they have some little time. Were this bill to go further, Mr. Speaker, and take in the sports which can be indulged in by those of larger means, I certainly would be for it. It makes no provision for the man or woman who has means to take an automobile and go into the country for a picnic; it makes no provision for the golf player who goes to the Field Club and engages in a tournament at which he pays a fee, although this would not be taken as an admission fee. It makes no provision for this class of people but does legislate against the man who wishes to go to a base ball game on Memorial Day morning.

As a member of the American Legion, it is my high privilege and pleasure on Memorial Day to go to the Memorial Day services and commemorate the services of those men who fought and died that the Union might live. It is also my high provilege to help to decorate the graves of the men lying in the cemetery, not only those of the war of '61 to '65, but the Spanish American war and the World war and the other wars in which this country has been engaged. Mr. Alexander tells you that you cannot legislate men and women to be decent, to be religious or to be patriotic, that is true. This bill is not designed in the proper spirit. I hold with Mr. Horn in his idea to commemorate that day, all of that Memorial Day. I cannot hold with the bill which is designed to restrain men of very ordinary means from indulging their desire for sport. This bill as I see it does nothing but legislate out games such as base ball on Memorial Day morning. It does not demand your attendance at church and does not make mandatory on any body to attend memorial services, nor should it, nor should any legislation make it mandatory upon a man to be decent, because that thing is impossible. This bill, Mr. Speaker, seems to be class legislation under another name, and I am forced to vote gainst it, not that I don't hold with Mr. Horn in his reverence for the veterans of the war of '61-'65, but because I believe it does not take into consideration those people who are unable to enjoy themselves not only on Memorial Day but upon any other day, men and women who toil in the mills and have little time to enjoy themselves. You cannot force those to attend memorial service. Those who are patriotic enoogh to attend memorial services are going to do it whether oe not there is a base ball game, and whether or not snch a bill is passed. I do not wish it to be understood, in voting against this bill, that I am unpatriotic; I do not wish to be understood as, lacking in reverence for veterans of the war of '61-'65, for I am not. I don't attend the base ball games, and I don't play golf, nor do I go to picnics on the morning of Memorial Day. I attend the services which are designed to commemorate the memory of those men and women, but I cannot bring myself to vote against the man who wants to attend a base ball game, who wants to attend any sport on Memorial morning, that he sees fit. If he is not patriotic, if he is lacking in the proper sense of dignity and reverence for the men of '61-'65, then in my estimation no bill, however drawn, can force him to do that thing which he does not want to do. I must vote no on the bill for those reasons.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, a leave of absence was requested for me for tonight on account of the death of my uncle. I attended the funeral, got on a late train and just arrived in Harrisburg. I would, therefore, like to be recorded as present.

On the question, recurring

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 684, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the fifteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred sixty-one entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the officers clerks and employes in the office of the recorder of deeds of any county having a population of one million five hundred thousand inhabitants or over" changing the salaries of certain officers clerks and employes abolishing certain offices and creating others

Such salaries and compensation shall be paid by the treasurer of the respective county out of the fees of such office as provided by law

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LUCAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill that you are about to act on might be termed a salary raiser, but I want to explain to you why it is not. There might be two or three persons there that are receiving a little more money, but we are doing that by abolishing certain positions. All this bill does, back in 1918 the municipal and county officers of the City of Philadelphia had a bonus system, and the employes today are receiving that; and all this bill is going to do is to give the employe the flat salary with that bonus. The Recorder of Deeds's office in the City of Philadelphia is a self-sustaining office, and turns into the city treasury over a million dollars, and this bill takes in three hundred ninety-employes. What is really does is this: where we are paying $103,000 today in bonus, it raises it to $109,000 practically, and it is for this increase that I ask for your support of the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 82, entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the nineteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, (P. L. 1055), entitled "An act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts, instead of imposing sentences; the appointment of probation and parole officers, and the payment of their salaries and expenses; regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases, and providing for their release on parole, their conviction of crime during parole, and their re-arrest and reconviction for breach of parole; and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries," as amended, by eliminating therefrom the fixed minimum sentence.

On the question,

Will the house agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I want to be absolutely sure before this bill is voted on that the members of this House understand the purpose of this bill, and the effect if it is passed by the Legislature. Prior to 1923 the Legislature of Pennsylvania had provided for what we call the intermediate sentence, providing that the court in sentencing prisoners to houses of imprisonment should provide for a maximum and minimum punishment. In 1923 this Legislature passed what has been known as the Ludlow bill, which provided that the court in sentencing defendants should not make the minimum sentence more than one-half of the maximum. The effect of that bill to tie the hands of the courts of Pennsylvania, and prohibiting them from imposing upon the defendants who had been convicted adequate sentences. Let me illustrate to the House. In a case that is known to everybody within the sound of my voice, the Marshall case in Philadelphia, where a man committed a wilful and deliberate murder, he killed a woman deliberately and then cut her body up and destroyed it and tried to escape, after he had confessed that he had killed her, and confessed to all the elements of murder in the first degree, a jury convicted him of murder in the second degree, and the court was only able to sentence him to not less than ten years or more than twenty. In my own county where two boys went out and tried to commit robbery, where they shot an old soldier in his own home, and as he lay there on the ground one of them said to the other, "Is he dead?" "I don't know whether the old pup is or not. I will give him another one for luck," and he shot him twice. The jury in our county because they had the spine of an angle worm or because they had to concede to a juror who was bullheaded, found these boys guilty of murder in the second degree, and so the court in sentencing them was limited to sentencing to not less than ten or more than twenty years. The newspapers of this county have been reciting the story of a crime committed upon the streets of this city, a man took a school teacher and committed rape upon her, ruined her life, took away from her everything that was valuable to her, and I wonder if the members of this House thinking that that man is guilty, and I am not pre-judging his case, that if he is guilty a sentence of not less than seven and a half or more than fifteen years is an adequate sentence. I say to you if that man committed that offense, life imprisonment is not enough of a sentence.

What my bill seeks to do is to repeal that portion of the Ludlow act which sets forth that the judge shall not impose more than one-half of the maximum sentence. In other words, when he sentences a prisoner he can make the sentence within the limits fixed by the acts of assembly, such minimum and maximum as to him seems right and proper. I have no interest in this bill personally. My clients, that I have, that are interested in it, will be affected adversely by this bill, but I believe it is the duty of this Legislature to uphold the hands of the courts of Pennsylvania; to uphold the hands of the authorities who are seeking to defend and protect your family and mine, who are attempting to properly punish criminals who commit a crime. This does not mean that in every case the sentence will be larger, but it does mean that the court that sits there and hears the evidence, looks at the defendant, sees the exhibits, listens to the speeches of counsel, shall then decide upon the time of the sentence, what the minimum and the maximum shall be. I call on the Legislature to do its duty if you believe that this is a proper law; if you believe that the hands of the courts of Pennsylvania shall be tied; if you believe that the Legislature is better enabled to sentence than the court who hears the evidence and sees the exhibits and listens to the speech of counsel and sees the defendant, then leave the law as it is, but I say to you that it may come home to you and it may come home to me. New York state has adopted the most drastic law that any state has ever adopted. It has put upon its books a law which puts a man for his fourth offense in the penitentiary for life. For his first offense of burglary or robbery he gets at least fifteen years. They have adopted a law that Pennsylvania should adopt, any man who commits a crime and has a revolver or deadly weapon on his person gets five years in addition. These men are coming out of New York state and coming to Pennsylvania, and it is the duty of the legislature of Pennsylvania to provide adequate means by which the Courts and District Attorneys and the public officials shall protect your families. I say to you that this is a proper act. The bill has been greatly critized both by the bench and by the bar. It was sponsored by a man for whom I have the utmost respect, a man of the highest character, a man who had the confidence of this House, and I refer to the Honorable Benjamin H. Ludlow, who formerly represented Montgomery County in this Legislature. The Judiciary Special Committee afforded to Mr. Ludlow the honor of having a special hearing, which we had on last Tuesday at 3 o'clock. He came here and made a very wonderful speech; a speech that was charming, and that represented the character of man that he was, a red blooded, high class American citizen, who believes in himself and his fellow men, but the only things that he could speak about were parole and minimum sentence. I admit that he spoke well and was charmed with his speech, and while it was a wonderful effort, I wondered why he did not once refer to my bill, because not one of the things that he said had any effect or any application to this bill in any way. I think that this is a proper remedy for the Legislature of Pennsylvania to enact. I think it is our duty to uphold the hands of the courts and the public officials who are administering the law, and I ask this House to place it back on the statute books, to go back to the place where we have been since the beginning of this Commonwealth. To place it once more upon that solid rock, the foundation upon which our administration of justice has rested, and I assure you if you do, the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. I shall be delighted, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Is it not correct that this bill provides for a minimum and a maximum?

Mr. WILSON. It does.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Then how are we going back to the law as it has been from time immemorial, as you say?

Mr. WILSON. We are not going back to the law as it has been from time immemorial, except to the extent that the judges of Pennsylvania are going to determine what the sentence shall be within the limits fixed by the act of assembly, and that has been the practice in Pennsylvania ever since the organization of this State.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you mean to say that it has been the practice of the courts, and the law in Pennsylvania, ever since the State was organized that a man could fix a minimum and maximum?

Mr. WILSON. I don't. I mean to say that the court has fixed the sentence within the limits fixed by the act of of assembly for these cases, since we fixed the minimum sentence, the practice has been that the court must fix the minimum and maximum sentence.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That, of course, has been only for a few years?

Mr. WILSON. It has only been for a few years.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Today the law will say that a man, for instance in murder in the second degree, as you have spoken of, the court can sentence him to twenty years?

Mr. WILSON. Oh, no, it will have to be the period fixed by the act of assembly which was twenty years for murder in the second degree.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Under the law of this Commonwealth that man was entitled to commutation of his sentence for good behaviour?

Mr. WILSON. Right down to twelve or thirteen years under the act in Pennsylvania.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Under the law at the present time as you propose it here, a Judge can sentence him to nineteen years and eleven months and not more than twenty years?

Mr. WILSON. He can.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And in that event he don't get a day off for commutation for good hebaviour?

Mr. WILSON. He will not.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I have understood from the sponsor of the bill—I think he misunderstood me when I asked the question because I do not think he intended to deceive me—but I understood that they had taken the maximum sentence out of this bill, and I told him at that time that I believed that was good law. I have never been in favor of minimum and maximum sentences. It is just as the gentleman from McKean has told you. Many times a man is tried for murder in the first degree, a question arises, there is some doubt in the minds of some of the jurors as to whether it is murder in the first degree, and although it may be near to it that jury finds him guilty of murder in the second degree. Under the present law the most the court can give him is from ten to twenty years. I agree with the gentleman that that is not right. I was opposed to it two years ago, and have always been opposed to it, but I also do not believe this law is right as proposed here. In other words, when you read your act of assembly it provides that for murder in the second degree the maximum sentence shall be twenty years. That is what the law says. Now should the court be permitted to say that he must serve twenty years? At the same time there has been on our statute books for many years, and I think it is a humane statute, a proviso whereby a man for good behavior during his imprisonment is entitled to a commutation of his sentence. That has been for many years the rule. For instance, if a man was sentenced for twenty years, if he behaved himself as many, many of them do, many of them reform after they go in there and are ideal prisoners, now to say by an act of assembly that he is not entitled to any commutation by reason of that good behavior, is not treating him right. On the other hand there will be no incentive for that prisoner to behave himself; there will even be no incentive for him to obey the rules of the jail, and there will be no incentive for him to reform if he believes he has to stay there the full time of the sentence that the judge has given him, which, as I say, is from nineteen years and eleven months to twenty years. That is just as bad a law as the law is at the present time. If the sponsor of the bill would remove from his bill the maximum sentence, and permit the judge to make the sentence the full extent of the law, but giving the man the right to earn by good behavior a commutation of that sentence, I would be heartily in favor of the bill and would believe that it is right. At the present time I cannot agree with the gentelman, because I believe that the man who is incarcerated, I do not care how bad he is, if he reforms, if he behaves himself, he is entitled to some credit for that good behavior, and that is borne out by the fact that there is still upon the statute books of this Commonwealth that commutation of sentence, that law which gives him credit for that good behavior. As I said before, if the maximum were taken out of the bill I would be heartily in favor of it, but as it is at the present time, I shall have to vote no.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, it is not very often that I have to disagree with the gentleman from Delaware. I cannot see how a lawyer of his experience and knowledge of the practice of criminal law can stand upon the floor of this House and defend the State of Pennsylvania going back to an antiquated system which has been discarded, so far as I know, by all of the states of the Union. I am not willing, and I would rather the bill would fall, than to go back to a system which we have discarded and which everyone else has discarded, and force an absolute sentence upon a man without a minimum or maximum. In addition to that we are going to adopt, I hope, a sensible parole law in the State of Pennsylvania, which will take care of that convict between the minimum and the maximum. Mr. Alexander's remarks are an indictment of the courts of the Commonwealth. I think they have sense enough, and I think they have knowledge enough of the facts and can be depended upon to fix the minimum and maximum in the ordinary case. Where the defendant goes into jail he will have a term where he is under the parole authorities of the State of Pennsylvania. For instance, in the ordinary case of murder in the second degree, where it was murder in the second degree, where the Court would fix a sentence of not less than ten or eleven years or more than fifteen years, between these times that prisoner would be under the control of the parole board and he would have to report to them, and the fact that he would get out of the penitentiary if his conduct justified it, is to be the goal that is set before him, I would be the last man in the State of Pennsylvania to throw down the torch and say to a man, "You are going into the penitentiary and you are going to stay there without any time off for good conduct," but when the court fixes the maximum and minimum he will take into consideration all the circumstances, and we still have confidence in the Judges to think that they can fix a maximum and minimum sentence, looking at the defendant, hearing the witnesses, seeing his face and having the personal touch. I feel that they can fix the maximum and minimum and between that maximum and minimum the defendant in the State will be under the parole authorities, and if that is to be the goal that is to be held out to them, I am not willing, nor would I be willing to ever go back to the time when the judges fix the sentences hard and fast.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not rise at this time either to argue for or against this bill. I am informed however by the chairman of the Parole Commission, which commission has studied the question of parole very carefully, that on next Monday night the Parole Commission would be in a position to give its report to this House. I would therefore ask the sponsor of this bill whether he does not deem it advisable, or whether he does not deem it expedient that we defer action on this bill until the Parole Commission has made its report. I feel certain when the Parole Commission will have made its report, and this report I understand is a copious one, that we will be in a better position to determine the merits of this bill, and I therefore feel that the sponsor of this bill ought to, and I am asking him, with the consent of this House at this time, to defer action on this bill until such a time as we have all the facts. This is a most important question and one to which I feel every member should give his careful and undivided attention, and I feel that the ends of justice can be met and this House give proper consideration if action on the bill is deferred, and I would ask the sponsor of this bill so to do, if he will. I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman whether or not he does not feel that it is advisable at this time to defer action on this bill until a week or two from today?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I am perfectly willing that this matter should be viewed from all sides by the House. There is nothing in the matter for me, and what clients I happen to have will be hurt by the bill and not helped. I trust that I myself will have enough legal ability to keep from being sentenced. I have from time to time, when asked, consented to sending the bill back to committee and continuing it and putting it on the postponed calendar. If there is any real desire on the part of the House that this matter be postponed, I will now move that the bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

An Act providing that the chairman of the respective appropriation committees of the House of Representatives and Senate and the Auditor General shall meet with the Budget Officer of the Commonwealth for the purpose of assisting and advising in the preparation of budget information to be submitted to the Governor and providing for the payment of the expenses of said chairman

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the chairman of the respective appropriation committees of the Senate and House of Representatives of the preceding session of the General Assembly and the Auditor General shall meet each even numbered year with the Budget Officer of the Commonwealth and participate assist and advise in the preparation of budget information and budget estimates to be transmitted to the Governor for revision The said chairman the Auditor General and the Budget Officer of the Commonwealth may make inquiries and investigate as to the financial needs expenditures estimates or revenues of the departments boards commissions institutions or agencies of the State government and they shall on or before the first day of January following submit to the Governor all budget information which they have collected and classified

Section 2 The chairman of said appropriation committees shall be entitled to their actual traveling and hotel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this act which shall be paid from the respective contingent funds of the Senate and House of Representatives

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 152 is a bill to restore some of the lost dignity to the Legislative Branch of the Government. I find that the Chairman of our Appropriations Committee is fast losing importance, and there is nothing doing in his office, and a former clerk of his has now written a large book which has displaced the importance of Senator Schantz.

Therefore, this bill, we hope, will restore the importance of the chairman by inviting him and the chairman of the House committee to the meetings of the Budget Officer when the budget is in course of preparation.

There is no expense attached to it except the actual hotel and traveling expenses of these two geintlemen.

As a matter of history, I took the liberty of writing to Governor Fisher and proposing that he adopt this method; and he wrote me a very nice letter and said he was heartily in favor of it, and he would invite Senator Schantz to meet with Arthur Townsend; but somehow he never did.

This bill passed the Senate and the House unanimously last session, and was unanimously vetoed by Governor Pinchot.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 328, entitled:

An Act fixing the compensation of the county commissioners in counties of the second class

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, before the vote is taken on this bill, Senate Bill No. 328, File Folio 373, I would like to make the following comment: This is a bill that changes the salary of the County Commissioners in counties of the second class, which includes the County of Allegheny, from eight thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars. I realize that the office of county commissioner in Allegheny County is a very important one, and it is a very responsible position, but I do not believe that an increase of ninety per cent is one that will be approved by the taxpayers of Allegheny County. There are a number of bills before the General Assembly for the changing of the compensation of county commissioners, and it was my thought, as well as the thought of a number of other Senators, that it would be well to try to have an understanding as to what would be a fair and reasonable increase for the county commissioners in all of the counties of the State of Pennsylvania. An effort was made through the Chairman of the Committee on New Counties and County Seats to have a conference arranged so that an effort might be made to arrive at some fair and reasonable increase for the county commissioners. This failed, and for that reason

I am going to vote against this bill. While it affects only counties of the second class, in a way it will affect counties of all classes, because if we grant an increase to the Commissioners of our county, naturally county commissioners of other counties will expect a very considerable increase.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, in answer to my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, I would like to inform the Senate that the last increase of salaries granted to the County Commissioners of Allegheny County was in 1909. There is a great difference in the work necessary to conduct the office of County Commissioner and that in connection with other offices in the county, the Clerk of the Courts, Register of Wills and Treasurer's office, with the exception that they handle a great deal of money in a day. The County of Allegheny has a valuation of its property for taxable purposes of over two billion dollars. The County Commissioners' office has charge of the question of assessment, not only the assessment of property, but has charge of the board levying taxes and considering millage. It has charge of the highway work, everything pertaining to the construction of anything in the county. Three years ago it was necessary to help to work out one part of the program, and that was under the jurisdiction of the United States Government, to raise the bridge over the Allegheny River high enough so that the boats could navigate under them. Since then we have had two additional bridges on the south side on the Monongahela. The sum total cost of the three on the Allegheny and Monongahela would run into twenty million dollars. The Board of Commissioners now in existence, immediately upon inauguration organized and put into effect a Board of Public Works. The Board of Public Works has charge of all this construction and the first mission they had to perform was to take charge of the designing and erection of the bridges, that is the engineering department, the architectural and engineering, and I assert here now that in the amount of money, twenty million dollars, we will save in fees over a million dollars paid for work on the bridges alone. The work pertaining to the roads and highways last year, the department resurfaced sixty-two miles and paved sixty miles, and the work was of such a character that it required the Commissioners to go before grand juries in the interest of the citizens of the county. While speaking to one Senator today with reference to this bill, he said "What is the salary?" I told him. "Why," he said "I pay one of my superintendents twenty thousand dollars a year". It is not a question of making a comparison, but it is a question of having a standard on the question of County Commissioners' salaries. I do not think Allegheny County, with its vast population, in comparison with other counties should be involved in trying to have a rule set for salaries to be paid to county commissioners. I have some knowledge of what the county commissioners of Allegheny have to do, what they do, and what is necessary to be done is to see that they get the proper compensation for the services rendered. Allegheny County does not have a single objection to this bill that has been introduced. I make the assertion that if the county commissioners come before the people at the next September Republican primary and the election in November, they will be re-elected for no other reason than that the people appreciate their work and insist that they are properly compensated.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, February 22, 1927.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Thou infinite eternal and unchangeable creator of all things, help us this morning to realize that all power and all government are of Thee, and help us on this day to realize also that all human government derives its power and authority from the governed. May we, on this Washington's birthday, go back to the fundamental principles upon which this great nation of ours was founded. Help us to appreciate all of the things he did to make this great nation a government of the people and by the people and for the people. May we never forget that too much government and too much interference with the rights and the liberties of the people ever since human history commenced, led to the destruction of nations and not to their upbuilding. Therefore Thou, oh Thou Almighty, guard and guide human rights. We pray Thee that this great Commonwealth of ours may more and more seek to do those things which are in accordance with the fundamental laws of this nation. Keep us from interfering with individual rights and individual principles. Help us to realize that the danger of this nation of ours today is not from without, but from within, and that if its destruction ever comes it will not be by any power outside of itself but by the evil working from within against the people of this nation and of this great State of ours. Be with us today; hallow the memories of our history; bless us in what we do. We ask in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

ERRATUM.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, in the House Journal on page 378, there is a mistake. There are remarks credited to a man by the name of Mr. Davis. There is no man by the name of Mr. Davis in the House. There is one Davies and one Davidson. I wish at this time to correct the clerks' error in crediting these remarks to Mr. Davies, when it should be Mr. Davidson. I should like to have error remedied if it can be done.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the Journal.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The attention of the House is called to the fact that the special order of business on page 1 of the calendar is not for today at twelve o'clock noon but for next Tuesday, March 1 at 12 o'clock noon, the date being inadvertently omitted by the printer.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 329, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and ten) entitled "An act empowering the state superintendent to issue permanent certificates to teachers in cities of the fifth class"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, this repealer, and the others I have on the list for this morning, are part of the general plan of repealers explained last week, and, conforming to the resolution offered last week, I am offering expositions on these bills.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

EXPOSITIONS ON REPEALERS.

HOUSE BILL 329.
1878, May 23, P. L. 110. (COMMON SCHOOLS.)
This act empowers the state superintendent to issue permanent certificates to teachers in cities of the fifth class. This act is likely unconstitutional under "Ayar's Appeal," 122 Pa. 266, and supplied by the school code of 1911, P. L. 440.

HOUSE BILL No. 343.
1879, June 11, P. L. 137. (CITIES.)
This act regulates the terms of the board of school directors in cities of the fourth class. The act, under which cities of the fourth class were created, was declared unconstitutional in "Ayar's Appeal," 122 Pa. 266. This act has nothing upon which to operate.

HOUSE BILL No. 321.
1879, May 19, P. L. 64. (VAGRANTS.)
This act fixes the fees by justices of the peace, and constables, in case of vagrants. It is supplied as to justices by the Act of May 23, 1893, P. L. 117, and as to constables by the Act of April 28, 1899, P. L. 88, amending the Act of 1893.

HOUSE BILL No. 324.
1879, June 11, P. L. 129. (FRAUDULENT DEBTORS.)
This act is a supplment to the Act of March 17, 1869, P. L. 8, relating to fraudulent debtors, and provides for the examination under oath of a fraudulent debtor. It was declared unconstitutional in "Horstman vs. Kaufman," 97 Pa. 147.

HOUSE BILL No. 326
1879, April 11, P. L. 22. (CITIES OF THIRD CLASS)
This act provides for the registering of all real estate in cities of the third class, and regulates the duties of cities engineers in the keeping of planes, records and books. It is supplied by the Acts of May 23, 1889, P. L. 277 and June 27, 1913, P. L. 568.

HOUSE BILL No. 331
1878, June 12, P. L. 187. (FEES)
This act provides fees to be received by sheriffs, coroners, prothonotaries, clerks of courts, registers and recorders in counties having population of more than 10,000 and less than 150,000. It was held special legislation and unconstitutional in "Morrison vs. Bacher," 112 Pa. 322.
Section 2 is saved according to Pepper & Lewis' Digest, but there seems no good reason for this.

HOUSE BILL No. 333
1878, May 25, P. L. 152. (MARRIED WOMEN)
The act relates to the rights of married women and is supplied by the Act of June 8, 1893, P. L. 344.

HOUSE BILL No. 344
1878, May 3, P. L. 43. (COURT RECORDS)
Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7. These sections empower the Courts of Common Pleas to cause to be prepared proper records and indices. They are supplied by the Act of May 26, 1891, P. L. 129. They are so considered by the Digests

HOUSE BILL No. 345
1878, April 18, P. L. 29. (COURTS)
This act provides for the holding of courts in certain cities of the State. It was held unconstitutional in "Fertig v. Patton," 88 Pa. 258, as being local and special legislation.

HOUSE BILL No. 348
1879, May 1, P. L. 44. (CITIES)
This act provided certain duties of recorders in cities of the third class. This act was declared unconstitutional in "Commonwealth v. Denworth," 145 Pa. 172, as being local and special legislation and in violation of Article III, Section 7 of the Constitution.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 343, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred thirty-seven) entitled "An act to authorize the board of school directors in cities of the fourth class to regulate the terms of its members in certain cases"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 348, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (Pamphlet Laws forty-four) entitled "A supplement to an act entitled 'An act creating and defining the duties and powers of a recorder for the cities whose population does not exceed thirty thousand and is not less than eight thousand five hundred which accept the provisions of this act' approved March twenty-fourth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven amending said act"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, we have taken all morning to the digesting of these numerous bills the gentleman from Schuylkill has presented. We have a pretty fair conception of all of them except this last bill, and I would like especially on this bill to ask the gentleman from Schuylkill to explain the merits of this bill before voting on it.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Christian Miller.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is evading. I am asking him to explain the merits of the bill so that I can vote intelligently on it.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, No.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me the gentleman from Luzerne has neither read the bill nor the constitution or he would know that this act is unconstitutional and has been so declared by the Supreme Court in 145 Pa. 172.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, while we are not all learned in the law you understand that was my idea in asking him to explain the merits of the bill. What are the facts in the case, let him explain them and we are ready to vote.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I think I have explained it by saying it offends against the third article section seven of the constitution being special legislation. I accept the apology of the gentleman from Luzerne as to why he asked the question.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 482, entitled:

An Act to repeal an act approved the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one (Pamphlet Laws fifty-six) entitled "An act to fix the salaries of the judges of the supreme court"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to explain to the members of the House that this is one of a series of repealers sponsored by the Pennsylvania Bar Association. There are two other bills that bear my name that are similar to this one. For instance, this one was an act created in 1881 fixing the salary of the Supreme Court Justices at $8500. and the associate judges at eight thousand dollars. The act of 1911 repealed that act and fixed the salaries at the present rate. To each of the other two bills there is an exposition which has been given to the clerk and will appear on the record together with the exposition of this bill.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

EXPOSITION ON REPEALERS.

HOUSE BILL No. 608.

1885, May 7, P. L. 18, No. 18. (ATTORNEYS.)

This act concerns the admission of attorneys, and was amended by the act of May 19, 1887, P. L. 131. The amendment was declared unconstitutional in 123 Pa. 527, but this part of the decision was held dictum in 231 Pa. 485. Both of these acts are supplied by the Act of May 8, 1909, P. L. 475, the constitutionality of which has been upheld in 231 Pa. 485.

HOUSE BILL No. 573.

1885, June 26, P. L. 189. (THIRD CLASS CITIES.)

This act provides for the qualifications, election, term, powers, etc. of mayors of third class cities, and the appointment of police constables and watchmen. It is supplied by the Act of May 23, 1889, P. L. 277. It is so considered by the Digests.

HOUSE BILL No. 482.

1881, June 8, P. L. 56, No. 64. (SALARIES.)

This act fixes the salaries of the chief justice and associate justices of the Supreme Court. It is supplied by the Act of May 5, 1911, P. L. 182.

HOUSE BILL No. 480.

1881, February 14, P. L. 3, No. 2. (TAXATION.)

Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. The sections relate to the collection of taxes in cities of the first class, and are supplied by the Act of April 19, 1883, P. L. 9, and are so considered by the Digests.

HOUSE BILL No. 798.

1881, February 14, P. L. 6, No. 3. (CITY RECORDERS.)

This act deals with city recorders, extending the provisions of a prior act so as to include cities of the fifth class.

HOUSE BILL No. 798.

1883, June 13, P. L. 100, No. 95. (SECOND CLASS CITIES.)

This act directs the investment of moneys remaining to the credit of the several sinking funds in cities of the second class. It is supplied by Article XI of the Act of March 7, 1901, P. L. 20, as amended by the Act of June 27, 1913, P. L. 644, and is so considered by the Digests.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 91, entitled:

An Act to amend section twelve of an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and eighty-three) entitled "An act relating to practice in the courts of common pleas in actions of assumpsit and trespass except actions for libel and slander prescribing the pleadings and procedure to be observed therein and giving the courts power to enforce its provisions" as amended by removing the exemption allowed municipalities from filing affidavits of defense

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. MATHAY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 673, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifteen) entitled "An act relative to the eligibility of candidates for the office of district attorney"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have permission to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, take the chair?

MR. ALEXANDER IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER, I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware what purpose lies back of the change made in this bill?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say to the gentleman from Dauphin that I have sat on the Committees on Judiciary Special and Judiciary Local and have heard a great many bills presented by the district attorneys. I understand under the present law the requirement is two years. This would reduce it to eighteen months. I think there could not be any harm in view of the criticism of the bills presented to the committee of which I am a member to reduce it to eighteen months.

Mr. HALL. That is the only reason?

Mr. TURNER. That is all.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 8 The annual salaries and all additions to the annual salaries hereinbefore provided shall be paid monthly by warrant drawn by the Auditor General on the State Treasurer

Section 9 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I renew the offier of the amendments made when the resolution was first under consideration.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend resolution by striking out all after the word "elected" in the second "Whereas" clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following "and"

Amend resolution by inserting after the second "Whereas" clause the following

Whereas It is generally understood that the attempt to pass said bill has been abandoned and that there has been introduced in place thereof a substitute measure intended to raise the salaries of the various judges of the State which is known as House Bill number four hundred and thirty-four and

Whereas It is necessary that the Members of the Legislature be advised of the amount of money necessary to be appropriated by the State for the payment of the increases contained in said House Bill number four hundred and thirty-four therefore be it

Amend resolution by striking out the "Resolved clause" and inserting the following

Resolved (If the House of Representatives concur) in order that the Legislature may be fully advised as to the effect of the provisions of said House Bill number four hundred and thirty-four the Secretary of the Commonwealth is hereby requested to furnish to the Legislature the following information

(a) The number of judges in the several judicial districts as classified by said bill

(b) The present salaries of the said judges by classes of districts as fixed by said bill

(c) The total amount paid in salaries to judges under laws now in force

(d) The salaries of the said judges by classes of districts as fixed by said bill based on the salaries set forth in said bill

(e) The total amount payable in salaries to judges under the proposed bill

(f) The increase in dollars by classes of districts in salaries as proposed in said bill over present salaries and

(g) The per centage of such increase by classes of districts

Amend resolution by striking out all after the "Resolved clause"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the information of the House, and so they will know what they are voting on, these are amendments to Senate Resolution No. 1 introduced by Senator Mansfield, calling upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth to furnish the House and the Senate with the necessary data to know what would be the actual expense to the State if the judges' salary becomes a law. I am informed by Senator Mansfield that both the Governor and the State Chairman, Mr. Mellon, are anxious that the House have this information so we can vote intelligently on this bill. The original Senate bill was withdrawn and a new one introduced, but the resolution passed the Senate before the first bill was withdrawn and prior to the time of the second bill. This amendment simply makes the resolution fit the new bill.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, in order that there may be no misunderstanding on the part of the members of the House and despite of the fact that I volunteered to give this information to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Baldrige, in order that there may be no doubt that he gets the information as the gentleman wants it, I ask the members of this House to vote for that resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution as amended?

It was adopted.

Ordered that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Alexander,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 20, entitled:

An Act regulating the trial of cross actions in trespass and the effect of verdicts therein when tried separately

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION.

EXTENDING BIRTHDAY GREETINGS TO HON. JOSEPH C. MARCUS.

Mr. BALDI asked and received unanimous consent to offer a resolution, which was twice read and agreed to as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 22, 1927.

Whereas, One hundred and ninety-four years ago today there was ushered into this world a child who was destined to become in time the father of a new nation, and

Whereas, The whole world now joins on this day in celebrating that event and doing honor to the memory of that eminent soldier and statesman, George Washington, and

Whereas, The glory that his life has brought to this twenty-second day of February, has tended to diminish the significance of the same day for other and different reasons, and

Whereas, It is the opinion of this House that it is unfair to the achievements of another statesman, who was born on the same day, but one hundred and fifty-one years later, that the entire day should be spent by the State and Nation in celebrating the birthday of one so long dead, when much profit could be derived from the study of the life of that other statesman, who is still alive and among us, therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that a portion of the time set aside by the General Assembly for the observance of the birthday of George Washington, be devoted by the Members of the House in silent contemplation of the life and works of the Honorable Joseph C. Marcus, who was born near Fort Duquesne, on the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and who through hard work and perseverence has risen to the proud station of chairman of the Committee on Elections, and one of the leaders of this House, and be it further

Resolved, That the said Honorable Joseph C. Marcus, be invited by the Chief Clerk of the said House to show his appreciation of this resolution in any manner agreeable to him, but consistent with the dignity of the House.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 15.

An Act authorizing the judges of the courts of common pleas and orphans' courts in counties of the fourth class to employ stenographers typists and clerks to facilitate the business of the counts and to provide for the payment of their compensation by the county

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend title line two by inserting before the word "in" the words "and orphans' courts"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendment made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY EXERCISES.

The SPEAKER. This being Washington's birthday, there being no objection, the Chair will turn the meeting over to the Committee appointed by the House for the purpose of conducting ceremonies in connection with the day, and recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Haws.

MR. HAWS IN THE CHAIR.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen, the committee appointed under the terms of the resolution provided for exercises and the observance of George Washington's birthday. The Committee through some little effort secured the services of the orchestra of the John Harris High School of Harrisburg, under the direction of Prof. Goodall.

The Committee is composed of Mr. Earley of Dauphin, Mr. Haas of Lehigh, Mr. Lucas of Philadelphia and myself.

The rest of the Committee will kindly take their places on the rostrum, I would like to have the House see what a fine looking committee it is.

The exercises will be opened with the singing of America. The singing will be led by that well known lyric tenor, of Lycoming County, also a member of this House, Mr. W. Clyde Harer. I would like the members of the House and the visitors to enter into this occasion with the full patriotic spirit that it should be entered into. We want you to sing this song whether you can sing or not. If you cannot sing, sing anyway, because Hr. Harer is such a good singer himself he will make you sing.

The first and last stanza of America were sung by the audience under the direction of Mr. Harer.

The CHAIRMAN. This is a wonderful display of Americanism.

Americanism is not sentiment, it is action. It concentrates its efforts upon the preservation of the common weal and of the inheritance that our fathers left us. It upholds the American ideal and its principals and is hostile to hyphenates citizenship. It brands as slackers those who claim American protection and, at the same time shirk their responsibilities. In a word, Americanism expects every man, woman and child to do its duty. Today we have come here in commemoration of the most notable event in American history. We have assembled to celebrate the 195th anniversary of that great soldier, that great Statesman, that great President, and the ideal of every man, woman and child claiming American citizenship. On an occasion such as this it befits us to animate our patriotism by reflecting that we have a country to contend for that deserves every effort and sacrifice. As citizens of this great Republic we have every motive to fill our hearts with patriotic pride and zeal. May this celebration help us to proclaim our patriotism not only by word of mouth but by our actions in support of this great, wonderful country.

Ladies and gentlemen, the orator of the day, the gentleman whom I am going to introduce, is one who has been for a long time identified with the patriotic organizations of the state of Pennsylvania and one who is well qualified to speak upon the deeds and greatness of General Washington. He is one of those citizens of this Commonwealth who can trace his history back to the early days of Pennsylvania, and it gives me great pleasure to introduce to you as the orator of the day the past State Counselor of the order of the Independent Americans, the Honorable Edward Wilson.

HONORABLE EDWARD WILSON. Members of the House of Representatives, ladies and gentlemen. No more proper place could be selected, for the observance of the 195th anniversary of the birth of George Washington than in the halls of the Pennsylvania Legislature. Pennsylvania peculiarly is one of the near products of Washington's greatness. For me to dwell at length upon the personal characteristics of Washington would be useless. His history, his achievements are too well known to the people of this great government for me to exploit the greatness of this great man. He passed away one hundred and twenty-eight years ago, having been born on the 22nd day of February, 1732 and departed from the midst of his people to that great beyond in 1799 and for that number of years has this great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania been a part and parcel of his achievements and of the achievements of his compatriots. It would be useless to further dwell, as I tell you folks, upon the greatness of Washington's individual work or to detain you along these lines. He was the builder of a great machine. He builded better than he knew. I do not believe that he, with all his wisdom, realized the machine, the great machine that he was building, to continue this great government up to the present moment. When he retired from the activities of public life he sat down and viewed the infant creeping to its great condition, growing as it did from childhood into manhood, and he saw that machine that he started, build, expand, extend, until today you as citizens of Pennsylvania can proudly boast that the machine of Washington today controls the destinies of this great world of ours and we are part and parcel of that machine. It was the republic as formulated by George Washington and his compatriots that today is responsible for the destruction of the empire form of government in Continental Europe. Republics have sprung up all over the world fashioned to an extent after that fashioned by Washington and his compatriots, and these governments exist today and this character and class of government; but I say to you, frankly, fairly and honestly that I don't propose to dwell on his greatness much longer.

I want to speak to you men and women first of Pennsylvania. I want to appeal to you men and women as Pennsylvanians, and every Pennsylvanian, to go forth throughout the length and breadth of this great land and show that Pennsylvania still adheres to the Washington that we have been taught about; we adhere to the Washington today as did the fathers of this great Commonwealth to what they heard during their youth. I have here upon my breast a badge that I brought from my home when I was kindly invited by your committee to talk to your honorable body in the Legislature. It was here in the halls of the Legislature ninety-five years ago. This badge celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington in the halls of the Pennsylvania Legislature on February 22, 1832. If there is a man or a woman in this audience today who was present on that occasion please arise as exhibit "A." I don't believe there is one who was there. Nevertheless I want to call to your attention that upon this badge is printed that one epigram "First in war, First in peace, and First in the hearts of his country men."—that has been handed down from time of Washington to the present day and I hope and trust will continue.

Notwithstanding what Washington has performed; notwithstanding what his compatriots have done and those who followed him, there are men today ranging and tearing up and down this great country of ours attempting to destroy by every means within their literary command the character of the man who has made us great, and, as a Pennsylvanian and an American I resent it; all such books and all such commercial historians going forth before the people of this country as Rupert Hughes has done in attempting to besmirch the character of George Washington and those who have followed him. I want to say to you in all sincerity if the American people propose to stand for the propogation for the creation of unrest, if we want to stand for men who have determined to destroy in the minds of the youth—and where could I point to a greater illustration of the greatness of the Republic within the policy of Washington than here today to the boys and girls of the schools of Harrisburg who have rendered this excellent music. They are the product of the great machine created by Washington.

Then we are led to believe that this great man's character can be besmirched without fear of contradiction on the part of the American people. I believe that the American people as a whole will resent such commercial literaturists as have gone forth for the purpose of selling books for commercial purposes at the expense of the character of the man that was elected and chosen by the people as the Father of his Country, the most noteable character in American history, George Washington.

So much for the perpetuity of the Washington theory of government, but I want to turn to another phase of this great subject. I want to call to your attention the fact that there are men and women who are trying their very best to their worst ability, not their best ability, their worst ability, to destroy the great traditions in this country, traditions that have been to the American boy and girl and woman and man, the traditions that have been almost holy in their conception. May I first for a moment refer to one or two well known traditions? If not of great historical value, yet they have been an example to be set before the boy and girl, the rising generation in this country. They will perpetuate and continue to perpetuate the work that Washington produced.

Let me call your attention to the making of the United States flag. There is no boy, no man in this audience who ever attended the schools of the Commonwealth, whether private, or sectarian, or public schools, that has not been taught that Betsy Ross made the first United States flag. It is true that there is no authentic proof of that. It is true that it may be tradition, or it may be authentic history, but we will accept the fact that Betsy Ross made the first United States flag in the City of Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania, and until the critics, until these men and women who are trying to destroy that beautiful thought in the mind of the boy and girl of the rising generation, until they prove to you and me that Betsy Ross did not make the first American flag, I for one propose to believe and maintain and insist that she did, because the proof is lacking that she did not. I ask you to join with me in that thought, in that belief that she did, and not to destroy the flag that Betsy Ross created, this wonderful flag of ours with its thirteen stars and alternating stripes until today we have it illuminated by forty-eight stars. Betsy Ross builded a flag as George Washington builded a machine of government. I do not think she had a knowledge of what she was building, and to the American woman, and to the woman today who is equal to the man on the right of suffrage, I say to you further that it is up to you to defend one of your own sex as a benefactor of this government and of this world by displaying such colors as this for the benefit of mankind.

Let me call your attention to another tradition. It is a beautiful story. It may not be true, historically correct, but I have known it from childhood that during the severe winter at Valley Forge, when Washington went forth to the woods alone and bent in prayer to Almighty God for the success of the American armies, and yet the men who desire to destroy this beautiful tradition, will tell you, as has been told by men in high authority in this government at banquets prior to the passage of the 18th amendment that George Washington went out in the woods to cuss so no one would hear him, that he didn't go out there to pray. I want to say to you when men try to destroy that moral thought within the minds of the young men he has committed a crime against government, against the boy and the girl. When the declaration was read, and I want to call your attention to the picture here to my left, when the Declaration of Independence was read in the city of Philadelphia, it was said, and it is another tradition, that a little boy stood there and cried out: "Ring Grand-pa, Ring for liberty." And now these historians desire to say to us that it was not a little boy at all, but that it was a little girl. Who cares whether it was a boy or a girl, but we have always thought it was a boy and we propose to believe it was a boy until this critic comes back and shows us proof it was a girl. I am not going to stand for that kind of Americanism, individually speaking. It doesn't hurt me very much personally. I feel these things are not so important in our lives because of our age, but it is important to the boy and girl who will take your place and my place in this government in the coming years.

While standing right here in this rostum of this House my eye falls on a masterpiece on the rear wall of this great hall where Von Steuben is shown instructing the yeomenry of Pennsylvania in the handling of arms and the drilling of them so as to be the army of Washington, and then when I turn to some of the pages of the history books we find introduced in the public schools of Pennsylvania, these boys and girls are taught and told by the historian that that army was composed of vagabonds and drunkards, men without devotion and are we as Pennsylvanians going to permit without protest the fact that that picture portrays in front of me the suffering of the men barefooted, half frozen and half starved who were loyal to the principle of government under the leadership of Washington. This hall itself is replete with history. There is nowhere that you can look but you see the work of that age. Portraying here in allegorical fashion that machine that started from Washington down to the days of Abraham Lincoln; it is portrayed here and the history should be continued and continued as part of the success of Washington, and Washington's policy of government.

Again, what happened in Pennsylvania as it were on Lake Erie? Every boy and every girl in the public schools of Pennsylvania has learned the story of Capt. Lawrence's "Don't give up the ship" as what Lawrence proclaimed, but the historian today, after years and years and decades of time has said that the Captain did not say "Don't give up the ship," but that he said "fight the ship until she is sunk." That was the expression of the cabin boy who came from Captain Lawrence and said that the Captain said: "Don't give up the ship." We do not care whether he said "Don't give up the ship" or whether he said: "Fight the ship until she is sunk" the fact remains that the tradition is that Captain Lawrence said: "Don't give up the ship" and we don't propose to give up what he says for the sake of some historian for commercial purposes.

Men and women of Pennsylvania I am standing here this afternoon, and I am not permitted to stand here all afternoon, and I have been timed and take this way to say what is occurring right within your midst and to the credit of this House of Representatives and to the credit of the honorable Senate two years ago we asked for a commission to be appointed to investigate the public school books, the history books, the books of Pennsylvania, but the Governor saw fit then to veto our request in the form of a concurrent resolution, and when all we ask was that you men from the body of your legislative body to form a commission to inquire into the facts as to whether or not these things are being taught in the public schools of the Commonwealth. A committee that was appointed to report to the department of Public Instruction made a report from which I shall read a very short line of what they said: "A careful reading of the various text books, in American history which have been called in question discloses certain weaknesses. Among those observed are instances of indiscreation and lack of judgment together with intemperate language in the expression of personal beliefs: Though the most noticeable is that of occasional half-truths—Statements true in themselves but conveying a wrong impression, because the qualifying statements are not given" and that becomes the official report as their opinion of the public school text books of Pennsylvania.

I want to say to you men here today and to you ladies composing this House that if Pennsylvania, as one of the the states of this Union, intend to permit this thing to continue without a proper investigation, you only have yourselves to blame for the increase among the younger folks of this community and of this state of unrest and disrespect for your flag and your constitution. Could you have believed it when you were a boy or young man, some of you are young yet, that to-day in Philadelphia there are classes of boys and girls being taught disrespect to the flag and violation of the constitution of your government. Foreign ideas are being introduced into Pennsylvania to an alarming extent and yet we innocently as it were assist the operation by our failure to curtail the men who write these histories and decry the forefathers of our government, its constitution and to make all these laws in the manner in which they have been made.

Mr. Chairman, I want to thank you, I want to thank the members of the House for this opportunity. I did not seek it, but I feel that I have been honored and that you have honored me by your listening to my few words, and I want to thank you and trust that some of these words may have found lodgment in your hearts and that you may go away from here and think within your own minds is there any foundation for what that man said on last Washington's birthday and if you do that you will act like Pennsylvanians always have acted; strike while the iron is hot. If your speaker has misquoted or if he has charged falsely at the cost of little opportunity and of little force upon your part you can see whether these things have been corrected within the past two years. They may have been, I don't know. And in closing Mr. Chairman, I want to ask you one and all, and especially I want to talk to this orchestra, they are the fellows and the girls that are going to take your place and my place and upon them rests the future welfare of this great government. They have been taught and tutored in the public schools of this Commonwealth as portrayed above my head by the picture of Thaddeus Stevens and Stephen Girard, and when these boys and girls have arrived at manhood and womanhood, so they will look back and appreciate to the fullest extent the great opportunity that has been given unto them for securing an education, second to none in this world through the school system and an educational system second to none, I'll say to you in this whole world, as has been produced by Pennsylvania. I thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Ladies and gentlemen, we will now close the exercises by the singing of The Star Spangled Banner. We started off with the singing of America and we ask you now to enter into this song with the same patriotic spirit and give us the very best you can, singers or no singers, it does not make any difference, sing anyway. We are going to ask that well known song leader, as I said before, the lyric tenor of Lycoming County, Mr. Harer, to direct the singing.

The audience rose and sang the Star Spangled Banner under the direction of Mr. Harer.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Chairman, I was not put down on the program to make any address to-day, yet I am arising at this time as a member of the House, beginning my eighth consecutive session, as a member of the State Legislature. I have never known in all that time that I have been here and have never heard such beautiful music eminating from the boys and girls of the high school of Harrisburg. I could not go away from here to-day without expressing my thanks, my gratitude, after hearing such wonderful music, being as some of you know musically inclined myself, I naturally feel and know when I hear music played well. I wish to compliment the chairman, the speaker on having brought us here to-day on this great patriotic occasion and I hope and trust what we have heard here to-day will fill our hearts with patriotism, and that we will go away from here to-day better Americans and better Pennsylvanians.

Mr. LUCAS. Mr. Chairman, I move you that the House give a rising vote of thanks to the John Harris High School Orchestra.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Chairman, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The CHAIRMAN. I want to say that Harrisburg is noted for many, many great things, but now to be numbered with their greatest is the orchestra of the John Harris High School led by Professor Goodall.

I wish to extend my thanks to all who assisted in any way in these exercises, and now, after listening to another selection from the orchestra, I will declare the exercises closed.

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. I am sure the House is indebted to the committee for the able manner in which they arranged this entertainment, and I assure them, on behalf of the House, that we have all enjoyed it and we will go from here better Americans.

PROCEEDINGS MADE PART OF RECORD.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the proceedings and the exercises of this afternoon be made a part of the record and entered into the Journal.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 541, entitled:

An Act defining and regulating the occupation of cosmetologists creating a State Board of Examiners for the licensing and registration of persons to carry on and teach cosmetology and to promulgate and enforce rules for the conduct of such occupation and the teaching thereof in schools and shops and providing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, permit herself to be interrogated?

Miss GRIMES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BICKETT. The Board which this bill creates has some expense attached to it, will the license fee take care of the expenses which this Board will necessarily place upon the State?

Miss GRIMES. The fees will take care of the expenses.

Mr. BICKETT. Take care of them entirely?

Miss GRIMES. Yes.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, permit herself to be interrogated?

Miss GRIMES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Does this bill affect barber shops patronized by men, or only those patronized by the ladies?

Miss GRIMES. It does not affect barber shops at all. The barbers have their own bill.

Mr. TURNER. The barbers have their own bill?

Miss GRIMES. Yes. This bill will safeguard and protect the operators of beauty parlors. It has two points, the economic one and the health one. Because of the increasing number of women who have gone into this business in the last few years, this profession feels that they should have the right to regulate their business by having a state license for sanitary conditions, for the health of the patrons and for protecting the public, as well as protecting their business.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, permit herself to be interrogated?

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SOWERS. I know so little about beauty parlors that I would like to know whether they improve the looks of women, and is there a need for the bill?

Miss GRIMES. Do they improve the looks of the women patrons?

Mr. SOWERS. Of the women or ladies.

Miss GRIMES. Well, I think you only need to look around at the ladies here present to know that they do.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, there are so many questions floating around here that I don't think I care to ask any more. I only want to say this, that the explanation is a very good one and has changed my opinion and I think I shall vote for the bill.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Lynch, Strayer,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 170, as follows:

An Act validating proceedings by borough councils for the grading paving and curbing of streets and thoroughfares and validating municipal liens therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever in any borough in this Commonwealth prior to the passage of this act a public street or thoroughfare or part thereof either cartway or footwalk has been graded paved curbed or macadamized with brick stone or other suitable material or has been otherwise improved in the pursuance of authority of an ordinance passed and enacted relative thereto and the costs and expenses or part thereof the improvement assessed on the abutting property owners as provided by the ordinance and a municipal claim or lien has been filed against the property therefor but owing to some defect in the petition action of council notice of publication or other proceeding necessary under existing laws and ordinance to give jurisdiction to such council or because of non-compliance with existing law as to publication of copies of ordinance posting of handbills advertising before the purchase of material and supplies or letting of contracts or because the ordinance or the official record book containing the same has been lost mislaid or destroyed or has not been transcribed in the official record book or for any other reason the ordinance or proceedings authorizing and directing the improvement and making the assessment therefor or the proceeding in the filing of any municipal claim or lien therefore are defective or invalid and the cost of such improvement or a portion thereof cannot be legally assessed upon the property abutting upon the street or part thereof improved now by this act such ordinance and proceedings authorizing the improvements and making the assessment thereof the said improvements and any municipal claim or liens filed therefor are hereby validated and made binding for the amount justly and equitably due and payable on account of such improvement

This act shall not apply to any proceeding suit or lien wherein a final order or judgment of any court of record has already been made or entered or validate any lien against any property which has been conveyed to a bona fide purchaser thereof subsequent to the expiration of the period prescribed by law for the filing of such liens and prior to the time of the filing thereof or give the lien thus filed priority over any bona fide lien or liens filed entered or recorded or which shall have otherwise attached subsequently to the time prescribed by law for the filing of such municipal lien and prior to the time of the filing thereof

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 751, (Senate Bill No. 154), as follows:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the Fifty-third Judicial District

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in addition to the judge provided for in the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws eleven hundred and sixty-three) entitled "An act to designate the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth as required by the Constitution and provide for the election and commissioning of judges learned in the law for said districts" an additional law judge is hereby authorized and provided for the court of common pleas of the Fifty-third Judicial District who shall possess the same qualifications which are required by the Constitution and laws for the president judge of said district and who shall hold his office for a like term and by the same tenure and shall have the same power authority and jurisdiction and shall be subject to the same duties restrictions and penalties and shall receive the same compensation provided for by law for judges learned in the law as if the said office had been established at the time of and subject to the provisions of an act entitled "An act to fix the salaries of the judges of the Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas and the judges of the orphans' courts" approved the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen

(Pamphlet Laws seven hundred eight) and its supplements and amendments

Section 2 At the next municipal election after the passage of the act the qualified electors of the said Fifty-third Judicial District shall elect in the same manner prescribed by law for the election of president judge a competent person learned in the law to serve as said additional law judge in said district from the first Monday in January Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two for a term of ten years Vacancies in the office hereby created whether caused by death resignation expiration of term or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as is required by law in case of a similar vacancy in the office of president judge

Section 3 The judge in said district whose commission shall first expire shall be the president judge thereof except where the president judge shall be re-elected in which case he shall continue to be president judge

Section 4 The Governor is hereby authorized by and with consent of the Senate to appoint one competent person learned in the law as such additional law judge of the said Fifty-third Judicial District to serve until the first Monday in January succeeding the next municipal election

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Bickett, to tell the members is there any need for the added in Lawrence County?

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as you know, some of you probably, that Lawrence County is a little different than most of the other counties due to the fact that we have a large population made up entirely of mill workers. It is a large industrial county and for that reason we have a great deal of legal work in our courts. During the last year we had fifty-nine days that we had to have an additional judge in our court, and for that reason we feel that we need this additional judge, because many of our cases are years behind, and only by having this additional judge can we catch up with our court work, Is there anything further, Mr. Williams?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING BIRTHDAY CONGRALUTIONS TO THE HON. EDWARD J. COOKE.

Mr. BURKE, asked and received unanimous consent to offer the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, February 22nd, 1927.

Whereas, This day is the birthday of George Washington, than whom no American stands higher on the pinnacles of History, and

Whereas, It has been brought to the attention of this House that many friends of another illustrious citizen of this State and Member of this House, the Honorable Joseph C. Marcus, celebrate his birthday jointly with the birthday of the Father of our Country, and

Whereas, Still another illustrious Member of this House first saw light of day on that same famous day in February, therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that the Speaker of this House extend the congratulations of this House to the Honorable

Edward J. Cooke, on this his fifty-third birthday, and the assurance of the House of their belief that his life will conform with all the splendid traditions of his natal day.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Thou Almighty God our Father, we thank Thee for all of the gracious manifestations of Thy love and care for us, and for the rich provisions of Thy bounty, and we do especially thank Thee, as people of this great State, for all of the riches and our sweeping valleys and mountains and for the riches of our mineral stores, provided back in the distant past for us; but may we realize that the greatest riches of this Commonwealth, the riches of manhood and womanhood, are far above our minerals and everything else,—our men and women. Make us loyal and honest and true, and help us to realize the sacredness of being lawmakers in such a Commonwealth as this. Be with the Speaker and the members of the House today; go with all of us to our homes, carrying with us Thy blessing, and may Thy blessing abide with our loved ones today wherever they are. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

O God, Thou art our Creator and Sustainer of Life. Even now we live and move and have our being in Thee; and we come to Thee to-night in great confidence, and would trust Thee because we have tried Thee and trusted Thee before, and have found Thee to be faithful in all things.

Since we last met great shadows have fallen across our pathway; graves have opened at our feet. But over the grave there was the rainbow of hope and a voice seemed to say to us, in the language of another, "My faith is in God." So we trust Thee.

Dark shadows have fallen across our sister State, and one of its distinguished sons has departed this life. May Thy blessing rest upon the family and the bereaved ones and upon the great State.

May Thy blessing rest upon this State, the Governor, the presiding officer, these Senators; and in all that we do may we be true and honest and fair and sweet, and may the love of God fill our hearts. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

(For Report see Appendix.)

REPORT OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE PAROLE COMMISSION TO THE LEGISLATURE OF 1927.

Mr. MANSFIELD presented report of the Pennsylvania State Parole Commission to the Legislature of 1927.

(For Report see Appendix.)

RESOLUTION REQUESTING AUDITOR GENERAL TO FURNISH TO THE LEGISLATURE INFORMATION RELATIVE TO COMPENSATION AND CAR FARE PAID TO JUDGES FOR SERVICES RENDERED OUTSIDE OF THEIR OWN JUDICIAL DISTRICTS FOR THE YEARS 1925 and 1926.

Mr. KUNKLE offered the following resolution, which was twice read, as follows:

Resolved, (If the House of Representatives concur), That the Auditor General of the Commonwealth be, and is hereby requested, to furnish to the Legislature the following, viz:

The compensation and car-fare paid to each of the several judges in the State for services rendered by them outside of their own judicial district for each of the years 1925 and 1926, giving the compensation and car-fare to each judge for each judicial district in which services were rendered.

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, to name the purpose of the resolution.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, the purpose of the resolution is to procure information with regard to the extra compensation that has been paid out under the Act of 1911, which authorizes judges to go and preside in counties of the state other than those in their own judicial districts—for the purpose of arriving at a conclusion, or to help us in our consideration of the bill, No. 434, that is now before the House, on the compensation that is to be paid judges who do work outside of their own judicial districts.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, has Westmoreland County employed judges outside of their own judicial districts?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, Westmoreland County has employed some.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, are the judges of Westmoreland County called outside of their own county?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, they are.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, is there any question as to the honesty and integrity of those judges receiving such extra compensation?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, not at all. It is a matter of information.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it is no doubt a matter of information, but there may be some doubt about the judicial integrity.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, not at all; I have no question about that at all.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, why not, then, inquire as to their expenses other than carfare?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, what we want to get at is the total of salaries that each of the judges receives, with some idea of getting at the proper amount of what should be allowed in this bill that is coming before us.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, mean the salaries of all the judges of Pennsylvania, including Supreme and Superior and Common Pleas Courts of the state—of every county of the state?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, this bill carries a clause which provides for work done outside of their districts and payment for it at the rate of forty dollars a day and expenses, and some other matters. It is with reference to that particular clause that I am asking for this information.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the resolution?
Agreed to.
Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 187, (HOUSE BILL 77).

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 187, (House Bill No. 77), entitled:

An Act validating certain proceedings and elections of counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, and other municipalities or incorporated districts had and held pursuant to the provisions of an act, approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, to provide for the redemption of the same, and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof, and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such proceedings and elections.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend Section 1, page 2, line 23, by inserting after the word "ballot" the following:
"and notwithstanding any mistake in stating the amount or percentage of the existing debt or the percentage of the proposed increase or the amount of the last preceding assessed valuation"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL INTRODUCED.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. STEELE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 589, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, (P. L. 858), entitled, "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," as amended, providing for the retirement of judges.

Which was committed to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President I move that Senate Bill No. 99, on third reading, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Highways to construct foot walks or paths along the sides of State highways through unincorporated towns and villages and making State highway moneys available for such purposes be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, February 28, 1927.

The House met at 9.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Thou infinite and eternal God, we pray Thee as we meet here tonight, that Thou wouldst impress on all of us the responsibilities and the sacredness of our citizenship. Help us to look backward over the pathway humanity has trodden, the many conflicts which have been fought, and the weariness of soul and heart, to make up such a government as this. May we realize then the richness, not only of our work but of our responsibilities. Keep us from all narrowness, from all sectarian strife, from all merely personal conflict. Help us to think and to act for ourselves and not delegate either our thinking or our acting to anyone else, and may we be dominated in all that we think and all that we do by Thine infinite truth, so that we may do that which is truly right and just. May Thy benediction be upon the Speaker and the members of the House and upon all who are here, and may the work this week have Thy blessing upon it, we ask in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of the proceedings of Wednesday, February 23rd, 1927.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of Wednesday, February 23, 1927, when on motion of Mr. Bidelspacher seconded by Mr. D. C. Moore further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

Flynn,	Labar,	Rhodes, C. H.,	Schilling,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Marcus,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 434, entitled:

An Act fixing salaries for the judges of the Supreme Court, the Superior Court, the Courts of Common Pleas, the Orphans' Courts, the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, and the County Court of Allegheny County, classifying judicial districts according to population for the Courts of Common Pleas and the Orphans' Courts, providing additional compensation for the Judges of the Twelfth Judicial District for trying the civil cases of the Commonwealth; providing additional compensation for Judges holding courts in two or more counties; [providing additional per diem compensation for Judges called in to assist Judges of other judicial districts, providing additional compensation for Judges who by law are required to perform services in the drawing and selecting of jurors;] and providing additional compensation for the Chief Justice and President Judges.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this is the bill known as the Judiciary Bill. Its purpose is to provide a general increase for the judges in the entire State of Pennsylvania. There are at the present time 161 judges, consisting of 111 in the court of Common Pleas; 20 in the Orphans' Court; 10 in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia; 6 in the County Court of Allegheny; 7 Superior Court Judges, and 7 Supreme Court Judges, or a total of 161. In the budget of the Governor the sum of $3,344,000.00 was provided for the 161 judges in the State of Pennsylvania. Should this bill pass it would require an increase for one year of $457,500.00, or for the biennium a total sum of $915,000.00. Going over the figures of the Governor, if this increase should be approved it would be seventy-eight one hundredths of the Governor's budget estimated from the entire revenues of $238,318,716.00. We believe that the time is ripe for the judges of the State of Pennsylvania to receive an increase. The salaries are graduated in accordance with the classification and in accordance with the population, thereby making it a general and uniform increase in the entire State of Pennsylvania. From figures that I have it would appear that in the cities of the first and second classes there would be an increase of $3,000.00 in the classifications of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth there would be an increase in one particular district of $3,000.00, in another of $2,500.00, in another of $2,000.00, and in other places of $1,500.00. From figures that we have gathered, which we believe to be reliable, the dollar since 1914 has decreased fifty percent; skilled labor has increased 201 percent, and there are increases for other officers in the state and other places of approximately 72 percent . The increase for the judges would be approximately 22 per cent. We believe that this bill is fair, we believe it to be equitable, and I would ask you to vote in favor of the passage of this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that you have before you is what might be called a raise in pay for a man that dares work for but one person The judges of this Commonwealth are put on the bench and then we say to them, "Thou shalt not work for anybody else." The Governor can have private enterprises, every official in the commonwealth can be engaged in some kind of business, but the judges of the Commonwealth can only do one thing and that is sit on the bench and administer justice. They have not the opportunity of going out and making an honest dollar like we members of the House who have our business. When you say to a man, "Thou shalt not work for anybody else," you are saying something strong to him, and when you say that you are taking from the highest grade of intellect that we have in the Commonwealth, the opportunity of doing something that we can go out and do, and I ask that this Commonwealth after it has said to those men, those brainy men, these men who can get opportunities to make money, I ask you to say that the Commonwealth will pay them at least half decently. Somebody has said these salary raisers are enormous. Why, they are only half of what I would like to give them. New York state is no richer than we are, and it gives forty to fifty percent more than we do. In Philadelphia County we pay magistrates $4,000.00 a year, and when you go over to New York and you violate a traffic regulation you are tried by a $10,000.00 judge. When you go into our Orphans' Court here your case is heard by an $8,000.00 judge, and when you go over to New York state your case is heard by a $15,000.00 judge: and when your case goes up to the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals, in New York, it is heard by a man who is decently paid. But what do we pay our judges? Now, this bill does not bring us up into the first rank, it does not bring us into the second rank, it does not bring us up into the third rank, but it helps us to help these men who could leave that bench and go out and make much more, and I ask this House to support the bill.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have heard from both ends of the state, the southeast and southwest corner, but we have not heard anything said about the scarcity of candidates for this honored office of judge. We have heard comparisons made between the wages that are paid laboring men and the salaries received by judges, and to-night we are asked again to do the same thing that we were asked a few years ago to do. I believe that no better argument can be advanced upon this occasion than has already been advanced, and we believe that the basis of the arguments advanced in favor of an increase in the salaries of judges is farcical to say the least. We believe that there has not been a bit of sound common sense used in any of the arguments advanced, and if the state is to pay the advance or increase we would like to hear some day from a judge, who regards his position as being a position of integrity, equity and honesty, we would like to have the candid opinion of the majority of those same men who have been elevated to a position of trust, responsibility and confidence in the estimation of the people, and we are satisfied of this; that the man who is worthy of the position will not come before any body of intelligent people and say that he regrets the fact that he is not permitted to go out and earn an honest dollar. We know something about the difference in the workings of things. There has been something coming down from the ages to those of us who live in the big sticks in regard to the brightness and astuteness, in regard to lawyers, and the lawyers of certain cities and certain sections that we have been told about, we have men in our own community who are just as able just as willing, who meet up with the same conditions every day, but are not asking for an increase at this time. We are confronted every day we come here with deficits we are confronted with programs of economy, we are confronted with charges of mal-administration, we are confronted with all these things and I cannot see for the life of me why we must go on record and vote an increase of the state's funds to those who are the best paid of any of the public servants of the state. I myself am opposed to this increase, even as I am opposed to the increase of any salaries at this time. except to those who are receiving at the present time inadequate salaries, a thing that cannot be said in regard to the salaries of the judges.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. TURNER.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 268, entitled:

An Act validating certain proceedings and elections of counties cities boroughs townships school districts and other incorporated districts or municipalities had and held for the purpose of increasing the indebtedness of such municipalities or the refunding of the existing indebtedness to provide for the redemption of same and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance to such proceedings and elections

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 3, line 7 by inserting after the word "with" and provided further, that the provisions of this act shall not apply in any instance to any litigation in any Court of this Commonwealth instituted prior to the passage of this act and still pending and undetermined.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection. The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Haas.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 703, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws two hundred fifty-eight) entitled "An act authorizing the employment of stenographers by the district attorneys of certain counties" as amended providing for the employment of a stenographer by the first assistant district attorney and for the payment of his salary by the county

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 979, (Senate Bill No. 46), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Highways out of the Motor License Fund for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and sixty-one) entitled "An act providing for the rebuilding by the Commonwealth through the Department of Highways of certain county bridges the procedure therefor the payment of a portion of the cost thereof in certain cases by counties cities and railroads and the maintenance thereof when completed by the counties"

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO POSTPONE.

Mr. PETHICK. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the maker of this motion.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Pethick, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PETHICK. I will.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Wayne his reason for placing this bill on the postponed calendar.

Mr. PETHICK. Mr. Speaker, it is to have an opportunity to confer with Senator Sones on the question of increasing the appropriation.

Mr. HARER. Have you already spoken to Senator Sones?

Mr. PETHICK. I have, yes sir.

Mr. HARER. Did the Senator agree to a postponement of his bill?

Mr. PETHICK. I have not had an opportunity of seeing him as yet, but intend doing so.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker, this bill has already passed the Senate and two readings in the House and is now on final passage. I do not know of any reason for postponing it. I think it has been thoroughly understood as to its purposes and I do not see any good reason for postponing action on this bill. I would therefore ask the members of the House to vote down this motion.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to second the remarks of my colleague from Lycoming, Mr. Harer. This is a bill in which we are vitally interested and I ask that the House vote down the motion to have it put on the postponed calendar. It is a bill that ought to pass and we are very much interested in it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, February 25, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith without my approval Concurrent Resolution No. 3.

This Concurrent Resolution would request the Congress of the United States to adopt legislation providing for retirement privileges for disabled emergency officers of the Army under the same conditions now provided by law for officers of the regular Army, insofar as regards physical disability in line of duty.

The compensation and other emoluments, including retirement privileges of and for officers of the Army of the United States, is distinctively a subject of Federal legislation and not for State action.

For this reason I withhold my approval from this Resolution.

JOHN S. FISHER

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the resolution, together with the veto of the Governor, be laid upon the table.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. F. N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER, the gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, there appears on our desks from time to time and in the mail, statements relating to the enormous sales of liquor and its consumption in this country; figures that are so incomprehensible from the truth that it is an insult to this intelligent body. With your indulgence I would like to draw a contrast between this House and that of the House of a third of a century ago. I have served in this House when drunkenness was common and the sergeant-at-arms and friends would escort members from their seats to the rear. That was in the days when Charlie Andrews ran a saloon in the basement, in the days of personal liberty. They are stating to us and sending through the country broadcast, literature purporting to set forth the great drunkenness in this land and state of Pennsylvania. I call on this body to use their own eyes and their own judgment in regard to the statements. I wish to relate an incident—two weeks ago last Wednesday on my way home I had occasion to ride on the Erie Railroad from Elmira to Smithboro. In the coach was a real old fashioned drunk, the first drunk I have seen on a train for a long time. I have been through twenty-one states of this Union within the last fifteen months and I did not see a drunk anywhere on the train except this man. He represented himself as being an agent of Al. Smith's and said he was traveling in that interest. He advised all the passengers on that train that he was connected with an association that was sending literature to all the legislatures that were now in session. He didn't mention Pennsylvania particularly, but I assume from the amount we have been getting, that is where some of it comes from. I have no use for liquor. I am not a reformed drunkard, nor have I any use for booze artists who assume that members of this House are in favor of debauching this land. If Mr. Al. Smith wishes to build a platform composed of planks from wrecked homes, cemented together by the tears of widows and children, he is at liberty to do so so far as I am concerned as a citizen of Pennsylvania. If Maryland, New Jersey and New York wish to abolish the Constitution, I object to Pennsylvania doing it, and when Tammany has got through with giving us statements and producing their man, what we Pennsylvanians will not do to him is not worth doing.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's remarks will be spread upon the Journal.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. STICKEL, Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Mr. METZINGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and (at 11:01 P. M.) the House adjourned until tomorrow morning at 11:00 o'clock.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1927 — 127th of the General Assembly

Vol. 10 — HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1927. — No. 19

SENATE.

TUESDAY, March 1, 1927.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Samuel W. Salus) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting Thou art God.

Thou art nigh even unto us. The breath we breathe we have taken from Thee. The life we live is a vanquishing life. Help us, then, to do our very best.

Thou art the God of all things, the Creator of all things, the King of the Silver Stars and the Maker of the Golden Sun that shines upon all men, as Thy love extends to the uttermost parts of the earth.

May Thy blessing rest upon the Governor of the State. His task is a hard one. May the help and wisdom and strength of God be his. Bless these Senators this morning,—every one in this Senate Chamber, every home represented. And may the blessing of God rest upon us all. We ask in Thy great name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mrs. VARE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The Senate adjourned at 5:26 o'clock P. M. until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, March 2, 1927.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, March 1, 1927.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for this bright morning, for the light from the sunshine of this day and for the hope of life and of work. We appreciate such days as this all the more because of the dark days. May Thy lesson of the diversity of creation in the mountains and the valleys help us to learn the lesson that Thou wouldst teach concerning the diversity in human beings; that we are not like each other; that no two of us look alike; that no two of us think alike. Will all our diversity of appearance, with all of our diversity of thinking, help us nevertheless to be working for a common end. Help us to realize that the very differences of opinion which we have, that our different attitudes to vital things, underlie all human development and evolution; that this world to-day is what it is, not because men have agreed, but because men have differed. May we respect each other with our diffrences and may we strive to build up the humanity of our state, not because of anything in which we differ, but nothwithstanding these differences. Be with us and guide us and keep us all this day. We ask in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.
